Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Ez 34:11-12, 15-17 / Ps 23:1-2, 2-3, 5-6 [1] / 1 Cor 15:20-26, 28 / Mt 25:31-46

"The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want."

(Ps 23)

Gospel Meditation

Many Americans are fascinated with England's monarchy. For many different reasons, we are drawn to the regal pageantry and all of the protocols associated with royal lifestyles. What's most amazing is that for all of the media attention focused on the comings and goings of English royalty, they really have very little effect on the day to day dealings of their country. Thoughts and images of kings and queens are often centered on this story book understanding of who and what they are. We associate protocols, etiquette, and proper words and actions to how we approach members of a royal family.

These tools serve the necessary purpose of keeping them isolated, enthroned, and at a distance.

There is something attractive about being an observer of ritual, pomp, and circumstance.

It's almost theatrical.

Is this how we see Jesus Christ, too? We often behave as if Christ is an isolated, enthroned, royal, and even ineffective king. Jesus wants nothing to do with having the status of an earthly king. Jesus also does not want to be watched, observed, or set apart. He wants to get down and dirty with the very stuff of life especially the poor, marginalized, confused, hurting, lost, broken, imprisoned, and forgotten ones. Jesus is the king who turns the tables on us and wants not only our attention but our engagement and conversion. He wants us to get dirty too.

How we treat other people is at the heart of Christ's kingdom. "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me." At different times in our lives we are all counted among the "least" ones. We may not be physically poor, but we can easily become emotionally and spiritually poor. We may not be marginalized as many physically are, cast aside because they have too many needs or don't quite fit in. But who hasn't experienced isolation, loneliness, inner turmoil, angst, heartache, or loss? Almost every human being has experienced brokenness at one point or another, or will most definitely at some future point, facing discouragement, fear, insecurity. People are thirsty for more than water. We are imprisoned by our prejudices, misconceived notions and ideas, self-focused obsessions and ideologies. There is a lot of pain and many least ones around us. Stop, look and listen.

This is what Christ the King is asking us to do. Look deeply into the eyes and soul of your sisters and brothers, all of them, and see Christ himself.

Being a spectator and observing all of the pageantry isn't enough. Jesus wants us to inherit the kingdom and live the kingdom. It is built on the blocks of love, mercy, compassion, hope, faith, and blessing. It engages those who want it, changes and informs minds, inspires and transforms hearts, converts and renews souls, and sets things right. There is such a great need around us. Are you ready and willing to do whatever you can to serve in God's kingdom?

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Ezekiel speaks of God as the "shepherd" who will tend to his flock with great care and discerning judgment. What is this teaching us about God's divine nature?

Second Reading

Paul reveals to the Corinthians the divine place of the resurrected Jesus Christ in God's final plans for salvation history. As Lord of all things, including death itself, Jesus will hand over everything to God at the end of time. Does this revelation bring you comfort or distress?

Gospel

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks of the final judgment that will accompany his Second Coming and the end of time. Jesus describes the final judgment in the stark and contrasting terms of eternal life or eternal punishment. Why do you think so many people avoid thinking about Judgement Day?

EXTREME MAKEOVER SJND EDITION

St. John Notre Dame School takes tremendous pride in the quality of the Catholic education provided for our children. We are blessed to be a part of a fantastic community which includes a committed leadership team, wonderful teachers, and generous parents and parishioners. St. John Notre Dame has been recognized as the top private school in the area for 8 years in a row.

As you know, tuition does not cover the cost of this high quality education. The "Week of Giving," previously known as the "Annual Fund," helps bridge the gap. In the past, the Annual Fund provided updated security fencing, stronger classroom locks, security cameras, paid for new Chromebooks, and new, updated HVAC systems, to name a few key projects.

This year's theme for "Week of Giving" is Extreme Makeover – SJND Edition. With the proceeds we will give our classrooms extreme makeovers which will include new paint, carpets, furniture, etc.

Your support and donations directly impacts our students' security and educational growth. Please make a donation today at <http://sjnds.org/weekofgiving>. Our goal this year is to raise $40,000. Remember, all contributions are tax deductible. You may also send in a personal check to SJND (Week of Giving), 309 Montrose Drive.

- Do you have a moment to make a purchase for me?
- I want you to help with a quick favor.
- I'll need you to buy a Target or Amazon gift card for me at any nearby store.
- Message/email me back immediately when you receive this message.

Have you received similar messages via email or text supposedly from our parish priest? With the holidays approaching more emails/text message maybe sent out. Please do NOT respond, send money or make any purchases. If there is any doubt call the parish office to verify.

Fr. Renier, Fr. Cleetus or the Diocese will never ask you to send gift cards or money by email or text.

Inspiration for the Week

Titles and privileges, palaces and guards, banquets and benefits, servants and fine living, are all things earthly folks associate with kings and royalty. These have no place in Christ. To understand the kingdom of Christ and what it means to have Christ as our king, one must be willing and able to understand transformation, engagement and empowerment. To live in the kingship of Christ, we have to live deeply and contemplatively; allowing God to change not only how we act, but how we feel, think, and see. It is not an easy journey or one that is always welcomed. Sometimes, it is easier and safer to live as if Christ were our earthly king. It's a more black and white world. But the kingdom of Christ exists in a world of gray where the hungry, thirsty, those who are strangers, naked, ill, and imprisoned find a welcome home. It is a kingdom that doesn't always make sense, where the last are first and the weakest are most strong. World economics and secular philosophy doesn't like this kind of king. Maybe that is why they crucified him the first time and continue to. Whatever we do to the least of God's children, we do to God. Do you really want to inherit the kingdom?

Please note confessions at this time will still be offered but not in the confessional. We will be doing a face to face format in a larger setting in order to maintain the recommended minimum 6ft "social distancing."

This Thanksgiving, let us remember all the good things, and people, who have come into our lives. We focus on thanking each one who has helped us, and ultimately thank God for the good gifts of this world.

Let us pray...

*Generous and merciful God,
we thank you for your abundant
gifts to us.*

As we celebrate this Thanksgiving feast, we ask you to send your Spirit, to open our hearts to you and our neighbor, that we may share the gifts you have given us as your Son Jesus taught us to.

Thank you for the many blessings of our lives: our family and friends, our home and the food we eat, our health and employment.

*We ask your blessing on all gathered here today, and all your people throughout the world, through Christ your Son.
Amen.*

Patron of Musicians

She lived in the Third Century. A cultivated young Patrician, her family loomed large in Rome's history. After her acceptance of Baptism she vowed herself to God through a promise of perpetual virginity but her parents married her to Valerian of Trastevere. She told her new husband that she was often visited by an angel of heaven but in order to see the angel himself he must also receive Baptism. He agreed and took instruction and was Baptised into the Catholic faith. Returning from the ceremony, he found her in prayer accompanied by an angel. The angel placed a crown on each of their heads and offered Valerian the grace of bringing his brother to the Faith. During the great persecutions of this time, the two brothers risked their lives by secretly burying the bodies of Christians who had been executed for the Faith. They were arrested, martyred for Christ and buried. Cecilia was also arrested and ordered to sacrifice to the pagan gods of Rome which she refused to do. The prefect Almachius shut her up in the baths where for two days she was left to be suffocated. In spite of little air and the intense heat of the baths she remained unharmed. An executioner was sent to cut off her head but was unable to kill her after three attempts. For another three days she remained living though mortally wounded to the neck, praying for and exhorting the crowds who visited her to accept Baptism and remain steadfast in the Faith. She died and was buried by Pope Urban. Her grave was rediscovered in 817AD and her body transferred to the church of St. Cecilia in Rome. Officials exhumed her body in 1599 and found her to be incorrupt, the first of all incorrupt saints. She was draped in a silk veil and wore a gold embroidered dress. Officials only looked through the veil in an act of holy reverence and made no further examinations. They also reported a "mysterious and delightful flower-like odor which proceeded from the coffin." St. Cecilia's remains were transferred to Cecilia's titular church in Trastevere and placed under the high altar. St. Cecilia is regarded as the patroness of music.

The Potter and the Clay & The Need for Watchfulness

Our first reading for this first Sunday of Advent gives us the master image of God as the potter and we, his creatures, as clay. St. Irenaeus said of God's provident direction of our lives is easy as long as the clay of our hearts remains supple and moist. Trouble only comes when we allow the clay to harden.

In Mark's gospel, we're reminded of the need to be watchful. God is coming towards us; so, we must be watchful, alert; we must be awake!

To register for the series, please email Theresa. You will receive an email prior to the scheduled session with the Zoom link & instructions. Please check your spam/junk mail in case you do not receive the email in your inbox.

Advent is our season when we prepare for the arrival of Jesus! Faith practices are essential for Family Catholic Identity. Make memories and traditions that will last a lifetime and for the faith of your family.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

2nd Collection

Please be generous in this week's special collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in six people live in poverty. With this collection, you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

Do You Have Any Christmas Themed Unused Greeting Cards Available?

The Christmas and holiday seasons are especially difficult times for people who are incarcerated. Chaplain Greg Mellor invites you to contribute to this year's New Folsom Prison Christmas Card Drive. With the help of donors, over 5,000 Christmas cards will be distributed so that each inmate will have two cards to send to family and friends. Unused Christmas cards can be placed in the box in the vestibule from now through December 31

" Let us be grateful Always"

As we count our blessings this month, let us remember the poor and homeless. Our designated cart remains in the church vestibule for you to drop off donations during open church hours. Items most requested are cup-of-soups, peanut butter and cheese crackers, hot chocolate and oatmeal packets, nutritious bars, raisins and fruit cups. Donated smooth peanut butter jars will be used by volunteers making sandwiches. The Divine Mercy Ministry thanks you for your donations. They will be delivered on Wednesday, November 25. Are you interested in driving to drop off food or volunteering to hand out food? Call Cathy or Greta at the numbers listed above.

St. Vincent de Paul Update & Thank You

This is an overdue update on the status of our food pantry and clothes closet. Due to the COVID-19, we remain closed. We check our phone messages and respond as needed. The majority of calls are from those who have donations i.e. food, clothing, household items, etc. The remaining messages are for food, cards and financial assistance (rent). Fortunately, the majority of our families are receiving food from Twin Lakes Food Bank. We are not planning our annual turkey giveaway, and it is reassuring to know that the food bank is planning to accommodate our community. However, if a family is in need of a turkey dinner, we will be sure to provide one. We have not made a final decision about Christmas and our Giving Tree, but expect to have some information very soon.

Finally, we want to express our sincere gratitude. Your continued financial support makes it possible for us to assist our families with rent and utilities, as well as to stock our food pantry. It takes all of us (you and our volunteers) to continue to provide for those in need in our community. And we look forward to the day when we can reopen and serve. God bless you and your families.

Sharing the Gospel

Share food with the hungry. Give clothes to the poor. Visit people who are sick. Share the good news about Jesus with people who have made bad choices. Jesus came to forgive them. God will see the loving things you do. He will reward you one day in heaven.

Mission for the Week

Read Matthew chapter 25, verses 31 through 46 with your family. Decide how you will make a difference. Share as Jesus asks.

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

The practice of Eucharistic Adoration is a centuries old ritual and falls within a broader category of devotions and rituals that are associated with the Sacrament of the Eucharist. In a particular way, Eucharistic Adoration is an extension of the worship and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament that occurs in every Mass.

In a long-standing practice, a period of Eucharistic Adoration often ends with "benediction," the blessing of the faith with the Blessed Sacrament.

Several parishes throughout the United States have introduced the practice of perpetual Eucharistic Adoration, while other communities have the custom of shorter periods of Eucharistic Adoration. Care should always be taken that these periods of adoration respect the instructions outlined in Holy Communion and Worship of the Eucharist Outside of Mass, the liturgical book that gives the instructions for the proper celebration of Eucharistic Adoration.

Although adoration of the Blessed Sacrament can never take the place of Eucharistic Communion, many Catholics find great comfort and consolation in their prayers before the Eucharist enshrined in the tabernacle or when it is exposed in the monstrance (both are equally valid, as the Christ is not more present in one than in the other). But when we consider our eucharistic devotions, it is always important to remember the fundamental connection these acts of devotion have the celebration of the Eucharist in the Mass and reception of Christ in Communion.
