Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Acts 8:5-8, 14-17 / Ps 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20 (1) / 1 Pt 3:15-18 / Jn 14:15-21

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

My dad was adopted as a baby. It's a big part of my family's story. His birth mother placed him in a Catholic orphanage not long after birth. A young couple longing for a baby strolled among the bassinets. My father, then only a few months old, looked at the husband and smiled. The man said, "That's my son." They took him home and the family grew.

This moment of adoption was a wonderful truth they celebrated even when my dad was a young boy. They told him, "You're even more special than the other children, because we chose you to be our son." My dad's eyes well up with tears of gratitude whenever he tells the story, even eighty-three years later.

What is your story? Do we think or act like unwanted orphans? Who do we believe ourselves to be? As we continue to ponder Jesus' resurrection, we hear him say to us this Sunday, "I will not leave you orphans." God doesn't leave us alone like spiritual orphans. The power that raised Jesus from the dead is the Holy Spirit, who is also called the Spirit of Adoption. He chooses us to be His children, to share God's life forever. He gives us a future filled with hope.

We are not orphans anymore! This Easter, that's the story we should share with others. It's the true story we are living right now.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

We hear how through the prayers of Peter and John the Holy Spirit descended upon those Samaritans who believed in Jesus and were baptized. Can you think of a time when your prayers were answered?

Second Reading

Peter taught his community to be prepared to defend their faith with gentleness and reverence even in a hostile environment. Have you ever had to explain what you believe to someone arguing with you?

Gospel

Jesus assured his disciples, "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you." When do you experience Jesus' presence in your life?

Upcoming Weekday Mass Cancellations May 1 - June 8

The 6:30am Mass will be cancelled. There will only be one Mass celebrated at 8:15am. Please check our website for the latest parish updates.

Inspiration For the Week

If we love Christ, we will keep his commandments, and the world will not accept us. But we are not left orphans — God sends us an Advocate. Come, Holy Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Weirdly Christian

For some time, I have worn a brown scapular. If you don't know much about this devotional practice, here is a very quick-and-dirty version, greatly lacking in detail: it's two little pieces of brown cloth, connected by a cord and worn around the neck beneath one's clothing. One of the cloth pieces depicts Our Lady of Mount Carmel appearing to St. Simon Stock, and the other piece — the one that is sometimes visible at the nape of my neck — depicts Our Lady's "scapular promise:" Whosoever dies clothed in this Scapular shall not suffer eternal fire.

This reflection is not about the brown scapular, but let me just quickly say that, while I believe the scapular promise, I do not view the scapular as a get-out-of-jail-free card, and neither does the Church. I don't wear it for the purpose of avoiding eternal fire. I wear it as a reminder to myself of my Marian consecration and as an act of humility and prayer.

I have sometimes cringed at the thought of how it looks to the person standing behind me in line at the coffee shop, should they happen to glimpse my scapular and read its brazen promise. We don't go in for talk of hellfire and salvation in polite society these days. I wonder if they think I'm a crazy person. I wonder if I should try to tuck the scapular back down below my collar.

Sometimes I do. But more often than not, I take a deep breath and decide that it's okay for me to feel self-conscious and trust that, if God wants to use this moment for His glory, he will — and if He doesn't, all I've lost is the esteem of others, which isn't worth that much to begin with.

I've always heard it said that if you do Christianity right, the rest of the world should think you're just a little bit weird.

"...the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him." — John 14:17

Come out and pray so that you can be a sign of God's love and hope for women and their unborn babies. We give women much needed information, free resources, and help during and after their pregnancy. "Your willingness to stand in the public square and pray for an end to abortion this Lent saved hundreds of lives, led abortion workers out of their jobs, and closed numerous abortion facilities throughout the country." Shawn Carney, President/CEO of 40 days for Life.

Wednesdays and Thursdays are our focus year round as these are late-term surgical abortion days.

A carpool on Thursdays goes out from 11:00-1:00 pm. Can you bring a folding chair and join us to help be a prayer warrior? Call Joanne.

PRAYER FOR MOTHERS

Holy men and women from the Americas
Servant of God Marie-Rose Juliette Toussaint

Mari-Rose Juliette Toussaint, was originally born into slavery in Haiti and later freed in New York City as a young adult. Along with her husband, Venerable Pierre Toussaint, she is remembered for her incredible charity work inside and outside of the Church. The couple quickly established themselves as a charitable force to be reckoned with in New York City! Throughout their life together, Juliette and Pierre adopted numerous black children from the streets of New York, raised them as their own, and helped them establish their own prosperous lives. They would shelter travelers and homeless folk and participated in many local ministries. Later in life, with the sisters — the Oblate Sisters of Providence — Juliette and her husband helped fund the establishment of the very first New York City Catholic School for Black Children. They also helped finance the building of a new Roman Catholic church which became The Basilica of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral in Lower Manhattan as well as helped finance St. Vincent De Paul church on New York's Canal Street. Juliette died of natural causes on May 14, 1851, at the age of 65 and is buried along with her husband and their child at the church they helped build, Old St. Patrick's. She is recognized as a Servant of God for her incredible virtue and holiness.

Greta Tecson, 916-337-2014

Practice corporal works of mercy by: feeding the hungry; giving thirst to the thirsty; clothing the naked; sheltering the homeless; caring for the sick; visiting the imprisoned, and burying the dead.

The Divine Mercy Ministry continues to be grateful for the generous response received in the collection of food for the homeless. You are truly sharing God's love with others less fortunate with your contributions. The collection cart remains in the church vestibule for dropping off your donations. Items most requested:

- cup-of-soups, raisins, peanuts
- peanut butter and cheese crackers
- hot chocolate packets, fruit juices
- oatmeal packets, bottled water
- nutritious granola bars, fruit cups
- creamy peanut butter & jelly

Fresh fruits are welcome and should be dropped off, during church open hours, on the Tuesday the day before we distribute. We are in need of creamy peanut butter and jelly. Bibles, holy cards, rosaries and religious reading materials are also appreciated. All donations will personally be handed out at Friendship Park with smiles of caring and encouragement. Thanking you in advance for your generous sharing this month. There is always joy in giving. Are you interested in driving or helping serve? Please call Greta or Catherine.

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

 Read the Gospel and Color

Jn 14:15-21

If you love Jesus, you will do what he asks. If someone hurts your feelings, Jesus asks you to forgive. If someone is hard to get along with, Jesus asks you to show love. If someone is sick, Jesus asks you to pray. Learn from Jesus. Follow his example. Love all people like God does.

 Mission for the Week

Make cards for the sick. Remind them how much Jesus loves them.

 Puzzle

Circle the pictures that show love.

 Prayer

Jesus, help me to love you enough to do all that you ask.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Lectio Eucharist Bible Study

Beginning May 24, Wednesday, 7pm, via Zoom

Contact: Angela Reed

916-342-3368, recatechists60@gmail.com

Why does the Church teach that the Holy Eucharist is the “source and summit” of our faith? Why does she insist that the Holy Eucharist is the “True Presence” of Jesus Christ? Do you believe?

If you do, can you explain to someone all the reasons behind this belief? If you don't believe, why not? In either case, it would enrich your faith to find out how God planned The Eucharist from the very beginning when Adam and Eve had to leave the Garden of Eden. Come dive into scripture with us and find out how God weaved this gift of love through our Salvation History so that everyone who believed can have food for their souls as they journey through life.

This eye opening bible study will leave you feeling thoroughly loved and awed. The study will be offered through zoom, so get your family and friends, near and far to join us as we discover God's incredible gift to each of us. Starting on May 24, for 10 weeks, we will embark on a journey through Salvation History with an emphasis on the Holy Eucharist. Sessions will be every Wednesday evening at 7pm.

If you would like more information or if you would like to sign up for the study, please contact Angela.
