Today's Readings

Ez 33:7-9 / Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9 (8) / Rom 13:8-10 / Mt 18:15-20

"If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."
(Ps 95)

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

What are you supposed to do about the bad behavior of the people around you? You know who I'm talking about. That family member, friend, coworker, or acquaintance who is quite immoral. On this front there are two lively options in our culture: bash the person to others (probably online) or pretend everything's fine. The former damages the person. The latter ignores reality. What to do?

Jesus' strategy in the Gospel of Matthew is as wise as it is difficult: go directly to the person, and then gradually expand the circle of intervention. Simple, often effective, and hard. But what we often miss is the context of the Lord's strategy, "If your brother sins against you..." Notice the italicized words. Is the person in a Christian familial bond with you? And was the action in question against you? If so, proceed with the plan. Fine. But how often we fret over the sins of those who either aren't our spiritual siblings or have done nothing directly to us. This is not an invitation to ignore injustice in the world. Rather, we should build bonds of fraternal love, and carefully discern when and how others' sins are indeed our concern. Sometimes they are. Other times — frequently, perhaps — they simply are not.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The Lord teaches Ezekiel that he is personally responsible to be faithful to the prophetic words given to him. How could you show others that you take your faith seriously?

Second Reading

Paul taught that love (loving one's neighbor) is the fulfillment of the law God gave to Israel. What do you think is most challenging to this seemingly simple command to love one another?

Gospel

Jesus taught his disciples to make every effort possible to be reconciled with someone who has wronged you. Is reconciliation a high priority for you?

At the Last Supper, Jesus taught his disciples to offer bread and wine in his memory. Taking the bread, he told us, "This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me" (Lk 22:19). Offering the chalice, he said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which will be shed for you" (Lk 22:20). Following this sacred instruction from the Lord himself, we have for millennia commemorated Jesus' death and resurrection by offering bread and wine, which, as he teaches, become for us his sacred body and precious blood.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Patriot Day

September 11

Heavenly Father, Creator of All,

You have created the human person as good.

You have placed us in the world as one human family as sisters and brothers.

We pray today for all victims of violence across the world, for the healing of their mind and body, for their mourning family members, for the repose of their souls.

Jesus, You have told us to love our enemies, and to pray for those who persecute us.

Give us the strength and courage to forgive.

Remove all lingering desire for revenge.

Holy Spirit, reveal to us the mercy of God.

Give us the gift of Your peace that surpasses all understanding.

Amen

Holy Men and Women from the Americas

Thomas Frederick Price was born in Wilmington, North Carolina on August 19, 1860, to parents who were Catholic converts. As a child he was an altar server and developed a deep faith. He was mentored and influenced by many of the priests who served the church his family attended over the years. Upon graduating from high school, he decided to pursue the priesthood. At the time, his parish priest, helped him enter St. Charles College in Catonsville, Maryland to start his studies. To get there, Price traveled as a passenger on a wooden steam cargo ship called the Rebecca Clyde. The ship was to travel from Wilmington to Baltimore hauling lumber, cotton, and other goods. While en route, on September 17, 1876, the steamer was caught in a hurricane and wrecked. The ill-fated vessel was completely destroyed and only a few survived. Frederick, being one of the survivors, attributed his fortune to Blessed Mary, the Mother of God's intercession as he and his mother had a deep devotion to Mary. After this traumatic experience, Price returned home for a year to regroup. In 1877 he forged ahead and started his studies at St. Charles. He then entered the St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore. He was ordained a priest in 1886 back in his hometown of Wilmington, making him the very first person born in North Carolina to be ordained a priest.

Early in his priesthood he began a statewide evangelization program through a magazine he published. His efforts with this publication continued from 1897 until 1912 when he passed the work of creating it into the care of the International Catholic Truth Society. He also started an orphanage — the Nazareth Orphanage. The idea behind the orphanage was to help those in need locally to win over the many in his local community who were anti-Catholic. The orphanage's success paved the way for Price to organize local seminarians into catechizing teams and open a training house, the Regina Apostolorum for these missionaries. The preparatory seminary focused on the formation of missionaries for their home missions. He became the primary spiritual director and educator for this institution.

Following the success of the Apostolorum, Father Price met Father James Anthony Walsh of Boston, and they formulated a vision for the establishment of a seminary for foreign missionaries. After receiving approval, they traveled first to Rome to meet with the Pope and then to France to take a pilgrimage to Lourdes. This trip was transformative for Price and propelled him and Father Walsh forward in their missionary vision. Upon their return they purchased property in Ossining, New York, for their new organization — the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America — better known today as Maryknoll. By 1918 the seminary had prepared their first three priests for overseas missions. Price joined them as superior during their first mission to China. While in China, Price became seriously ill. He had to travel a long way to Hong Kong via primitive means to secure adequate medical care. He was found to have an advanced case of appendicitis. Despite operations to help, he died of a burst appendix on September 12, 1919. He was originally buried in Hong Kong but, he was transferred to the Maryknoll Cemetery in 1936 and then interred in the crypt below Maryknoll Seminary Chapel alongside Fr. Walsh's remains in 1955.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Mt 18:15-20

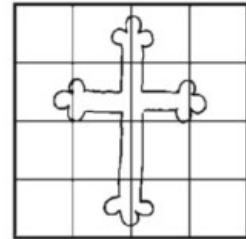

One day someone might sin against you. Friends may hurt your feelings. A neighbor may take your toy without asking. Remember what Jesus said. Remember that you sin, too. Talk it over quietly, just the two of you, and give your friend a chance to apologize.
