We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Ez 37:12-14 / Ps 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8 [7] / Rom 8:8-11 / Jn 11:1-45 or 11:3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45

When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, he found him and said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" He answered and said, "Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?"

Jesus said to him, "You have seen him and the one speaking with you is he."

He said, "I do believe, Lord," and he worshiped him.

-Jn 9:35-38

Gospel Meditation

Even though we say that we believe, there is a part of us that doesn't. There are many times in our lives when we experience death, whether it be the physical death of someone we love, a failed relationship, the loss of a job, or a broken dream. As we are going through these death experiences, we can easily find ourselves reaching out to God to make it better and fix it! We think that the proper order of life is to maintain the things of this world, especially those things that are essential to our sense of well-being and security. We do not like change. The grieving that comes from our death experiences can keep us stuck and in despair. If we have lost something or someone of great value, the very meaning and essence of life is lost with them. We need gentle companions to lift us from despair and that is precisely who God desires to be in our life as well.

God calls us out of our tombs, where we have been closed up in fear and despair, and shouts, "Come out!" He desperately wants to show us the path to hope and the new life that is possible after loss and death. But our faith can be weak, and we still prefer to cling to the memory of what we had rather than the joyful possibilities of tomorrow. We sometimes live as if God is not real and that the transformative power of His resurrected presence is a story found in the Bible rather than a narrative unfolding in our lives.

God is the God of surprises, not our demise. God opens new possibilities, begins new chapters, creates new verses, and brings us to new heights! We spend so much time and energy ruminating over what we left behind yesterday that we are far too tired to see what can unfold tomorrow. Loving someone new doesn't negate our past loves. Embracing the love of a person, God, or life itself tomorrow doesn't diminish the love of yesterday. Each of our loves is different, and one cannot be replaced by another. They don't cancel each other out. God truly has tended to every detail of our lives, and if we listen to each detail, we find that they all lead us back to Him. Jesus wants us to come out of our closed-up tombs. Are we going to listen this time?

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

During the dark days of Israel's exile in Babylon, the prophet Ezekiel foresaw God's resurrection and restoration of his people. As the season of Lent comes to a close, what parts of your life are still in need of God's restorative power?

Second Reading

Paul assured the believers in Rome that "the Spirit of God dwells in you" and that this same Spirit will raise you from the dead. What gives you confidence in Paul's words?

Gospel Reading

John tells us that after Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead, many "began to believe in him."

On what grounds do you believe in Jesus as our Lord and Savior?

Pharisees of Jesus' day. How do we prevent ourselves from being blind to God's presence in this season of Lent?

Message from Father Renier

Dear Parishioners,

Though the celebration of public Masses and other gatherings including Stations of the Cross are temporarily suspended, I encourage you to remain steadfast in your faith. I am certain that something good will come out of this. God will continue to take care of us. He will never leave us unattended. Take this opportunity to gather as a family to pray the Holy Rosary, recite the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy, Stations of the Cross, etc., and offer them for the purification of our Church, safety of everyone and the whole world at large.

During weekdays, the church will remain open for those who would like to pray before the Blessed Sacrament from 8:00am-4:30pm. On the weekends, the church will be open from 7:00am-6pm. Confessions will also be available only on Saturdays at 3:00pm-4:30pm. Scheduled prayer intentions will be offered by the priests of the parish during their private Mass. For those who would like to watch the Mass online, here's a very good link: <https://saintpatrickscathedral.org/live>.

The Bishop has issued a directive, that all parish offices will be closed for in-person visits and meetings. Please conduct any St. John ministry and business correspondence via email, phone or social media as these will be checked regularly by staff.

Once again, although the services are put on hold for the time being, the parish operations continue; that means, bills are to be paid, staff need to be given their salaries, facilities' maintenance are needed. Having said all that, I encourage all parishioners to continue their monetary contributions. Send your weekly envelopes to the parish office or use the online giving if you deem fit.

When you call the office and nobody is there to pick up your call, please leave us a message. Fr. Cleetus and I will regularly check the phone for voicemails. We can also be reached at our parish emails at: fr.renier@folsomcatholic.org and frcleetus@folsomcatholic.org. Bulletins will be posted on the website and hard copies will also be available at the front office and the vestibule.

I encourage you to constantly check the parish website for updates. Stay safe!

Hoping for your kind considerations.

Fr. Renier Siva, Pastor

Here in Sacramento, a young mother walked up to the sidewalk outside the abortion clinic with tears in her eyes. She said, "You saved my babies and my family" as she held the hands of her twin two-year-olds. Additionally, a long-time abortion business employee told people there that she "just wanted to say goodbye. You won't be seeing me here anymore. I finally quit today." These are just a couple of encouraging stories ~ we pray more people will come out to be the presence that makes so much difference. Come help moms and save babies!

Inspiration of the Week

We face death every day. Whether it comes with the actual death of someone we love (or someone we don't even know), a failed relationship, the loss of a job, a broken dream, or pondering our own mortality, death is always around us. What does death say to us? What we believe about our death experiences is going to say volumes about how we live our lives. Jesus comes to us today just as he did many years ago to people who were struggling with loss and death and wondering what to do. He calls us out of our tombs, where we have been closed up in fear and despair, and shouts, “Come out!” Jesus leads us out of death and gives us hope. There is always hope. There is always transformation. Although we may not always see where the road of life is taking us or see God's presence with us on our journey, we will be brought to a new place and be given new life. Walk with God and listen to Him call you. Tomorrow, there awaits another surprise.

The 6 Characteristics of an Everyday Stewardship for Lent - Committed

I remember Jim Valvano, Jimmy V to many, saying the iconic words, “Don't give up; you can never give up.” The former coach of the NC State men's basketball team was dying of cancer, yet he refused to throw in the towel and give in to his disease. His words exemplified the best of the human spirit we all share. Sometimes, living out those words seem much more difficult than saying them.

These words are also important for our faith life. The life Jesus calls us to is not easy. When working toward a life of greater generosity and surrender of all to God, we are prone to fall flat on our face many times. We are not called to this life only when we are strong. It is how we respond when times are the most difficult that truly defines us as disciples and stewards. The world may think we are down for the count, but rising again gives testimony that in Christ we are stronger.

Commitment takes a willingness to do the things needed to get stronger and build our spiritual muscles. We cannot expect to find success in the spiritual life unless we continue to work on our resolve and grow in our knowledge of the faith. A marathon runner would never be able to make it to the finish line unless they have trained and prepared in advance. We must work hard to stay the course and prepare for the race at hand. No matter what this life may have in store for us, we are called to not give up. God will never give up on us.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Can we count on your help to make this the best family fun event we've ever had?

Sharing the Gospel

Instead of telling people he was the Savior, Jesus showed them. By raising Lazarus from the dead, Jesus sent a message loud and clear. Jesus was the Savior they had all been waiting for. He was filled with God's love and power, and many people believed in him.
