Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Rv 7:2-4, 9-14 / Ps 24:1bc-2, 3-4ab, 5-6 [cf. 6] / 1 Jn 3:1-3 / Mt 5:1-12a

"Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face."

(Ps 24)

Gospel Meditation

I remember as a child the meticulousness my father would bring to a task. Whether it be tending to a chore in the yard, repairing something, or painting a room, the tiniest of every detail demanded his attention. He had great patience. I benefited greatly by his example and remember these lessons well. We all need examples to follow. It is important to identify folks who excel at simple things and show us how to do things well. There are those among us and those who have gone before us who serve as these models and witnesses. They are ordinary people who in their "extraordinary ordinariness" capture our attention and allow us to see things more clearly.

These are the prophets, martyrs, teachers, witnesses, heralds, and innovators who bring a single-minded devotion to God to even the simplest of tasks they perform. They have an openness to being used and become vessels of Divine justice, mercy, and presence. They call us to the "more" of life and point us to the Gospel in all of its simplicity and splendor. They remind us of the little ones of the Kingdom and the values we all need to cultivate and possess. They are the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the peacemaker who often are rejected not only by those who have far different agendas but by those you think would welcome them.

All of the saints in heaven and on earth form this cloud of witnesses who journey with us as we make our way through life. They offer us inspiration, wisdom, intercession, and support. They direct us toward true happiness and remind us that we are all called to be saints. All it takes is desire, love, and fidelity. There is much we can learn from the official saints of the church. Their guidance is ever before us and ever with us. But there is also a lot to learn from the unofficial saints of the church. They sit beside us every Sunday, are our neighbors and ordinary people we meet every day. Because of the devotedness of their faith, they remind us to keep going, remain focused, and cultivate purpose and meaning, and give voice to those who have none.

The inspiration is all around us.

Pay attention to the details. Do what you do with great love. Know that you are not alone. Believe that you can persevere. Have great faith.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

In a vision, John sees in heaven those who survived being tested in their faith. What would you say is the biggest test of threat to your faith?

Second Reading

John speaks of the importance of "hope" in the life of a Christian. What do you hope for as a believer in Jesus Christ?

Gospel

Jesus' Sermon on the Mount (Matt 5-7) begins with a listing of beatitudes. How do you think you measure up to these beatitudes?

Mercy in Motion

November 15 - November 21, 2020
www.scd.org/youth-and-young-adult-ministry/mercy-motion

Middle School & High School youth are invited and encouraged to participate in this interactive week of formation, service, and community be part of the Mission experience, Looking for service ideas for Confirmation requirements? This may fulfill the family or Sponsor requirement if there is partnership with parents on the service component. We will provide a virtual & interactive event for groups in the greater Sacramento communities, complete with speakers, spiritual formation, music, and community building! Individual families are asked to register and to identify at least 1 service project to complete during the week. The youth will be led by youth ministers through each day. Parents will be provided with materials to accompany their family members as well.

Inspiration for the Week

Especially with regard to living the Gospel, we are not alone. A great cloud of witnesses journey with us offering us inspiration, wisdom, intercession, and support. We look to them for the example of perseverance we desperately need in order to be faithful, and for what it means to “walk the talk!” The Beatitudes are indeed a blessed vision that people hunger to hear and embrace. But, they also clearly remind us that following Jesus is difficult. Poverty of spirit, meekness, mercy, and peace making are not virtues readily accepted by the world. Pursuing a purity of heart and acknowledging the hunger of our souls require not only a courageous stance, but a single-minded devotion to God. And, after going against the grain of the world and meeting resistance along the way, the true disciple may find themselves persecuted and paying a high price. Look to all the saints for the secret to happiness and the example of fidelity. Their lives speak volumes of how God can use even the weakest and most humble among us in tremendous ways. Saints are not even close to being perfect. They are just ordinary folks like us trying to give honor to God with their lives.

Remembrance Envelopes

November is the month of the Holy Souls. The Church encourages us to remember the deceased members of our families in a special way. Remembrance envelopes are available in the vestibule for you to list the names of those you would like to be remembered in the November Masses. Completed envelopes can be put in the collection basket or returned to the parish office mailbox. The envelopes will be placed on the altar for the month of November.

The Gospel of Matthew

An Online 15-Segment Zoom Series
Presented by Deacon Jim McFadden

November 10, Tuesday, 7 pm

Contact: Theresa Grant

tgrant203@aol.com

Session 10:

Moving Towards Jerusalem — The Cross Looms
In all three synoptic Gospels, Jesus’ journey from Galilee to Jerusalem is integral. Up to now, Galilee has been the focus of Jesus’ public ministry: his teaching of the Kingdom of God, healing and performing “might works” (miracles), gathering a group of apostles and disciples around him, impressing the crowds with his amazing authority, and encountering opposition from the religious establishment. But, Jesus’ destiny is centered in Jerusalem, the city of David, which will ultimately reject him and where he will undergo his Passion, Death, and Resurrection.

To register for the series, please email Theresa Grant. You will receive an email prior to the scheduled session with the Zoom online link & instructions. Please check your spam/junk mail in case you do not receive the email in your inbox.

O God,

You raised up St. John the Baptist to prepare a perfect people for Christ.

Fill Your people with the joy of possessing His grace, and direct the minds of all the faithful in the way of peace and salvation.

Grant that as St. John was martyred for truth and justice, so we may energetically profess our Faith in You, and lead others to the Way, the Truth, and Eternal Life.
Amen.

our lives.

November: Month of All Souls

More recently, it has been called the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. November 2nd, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, dovetails with November 1st, the feast of All Saints.

The saints, our models of Christian living, are one with God in heaven. All the faithful departed are those who have died with hope and trust in a loving God who calls us to greater growth and development, even beyond death. This growth and development occurs in a state of being that we have traditionally called purgatory. While the Western Church has emphasized the cleansing and purifying nature of purgatory, the Eastern Orthodox Church has emphasized the growth and development aspect of it.

Today, belief in purgatory allows one who has died in Christ to continue growing and developing before meeting God face to face. God continually invites communion with these loved ones, but some feel the need to continue growing and developing before entering into full communion with God. These November feasts vividly remind us of the rich reality known as the communion of saints. This belief stresses the strong affirmation that the church is always one in Christ. Death does not sever any of the bonds that unite us in Christ. That is why it is a fitting practice to pray for the dead and to ask them to pray for us. Just as we do that for each other when we are alive, so, too, do we continue that bond and concern for each other even beyond death.

All Saints Day

I heard a story the other day of a very holy man. The commentator said, "We shouldn't call him a saint. If we sanctify him, we don't have to imitate him." This is precisely the opposite of the meaning of saints! Throughout the Church's history, we have honored saints, but not to set them apart. We honor saints to remind us what is possible for a person who loves God. The saints have stories as varied as our own. We have bishops, martyrs, teachers, doctors, former thieves and prostitutes, politicians and kings, soldiers and pacifists, single mothers, desert hermits, the list goes on! On this Solemnity of All Saints, we remember this garden of holiness, rich with diverse flowerings of a holy life. When you look at the life of your favorite saint, ask yourself, "How can I imitate this person? What is possible for me when I love God?"

"Just as the sun shines on all the trees and flowers as if each were the only one on earth, so does God care for all souls in a special manner."

Stewardship of Treasure the Lord Has Entrusted to Us

Weekly goal: $25,529.00

Weekly Offerings:

October 24/25 $12,761.90

2nd Collection

This weekend our 2nd collection will be for our Religious Education Program and St John Notre Dame.

Last weekend our 2nd collection was for Peter's Pence Collection. Our parish raised $1168.

Next weekend our 2nd collection will be for our Building and Maintenance Fund.

Knights of Columbus: Coats For Kids and Food For Families Programs

The following Knights of Columbus Faith in Action programs are normally run during the Fall and Winter here at St. John the Baptist Parish for our parishioners' and community in need. Unfortunately, we live in uncharted waters, because of "Covid19" along with the many wild fires throughout our State since March of this year.

Currently the Parish Office and Helping Hands are "closed" for normal operations and we have used these two locations to accept many donations, coats and food in the past. The other issue is we have a lesser number of parishioners attending Mass on both Saturday, and Sunday because of limitations set by our State Health guidelines and Sacramento Diocese.

These two programs are currently on "hold" for now until further notice, like everything else during this time. We'll get back with you when it's much safer to move forward.

Please Consider Online Giving

Our Parish Is Grateful

for Your Continued Support

folsomcatholic.org/onlinegiving

Please remember although the services are limited for the time being, parish operations continue; bills are to be paid, staff need to be given their salaries, facilities' maintenance are needed. Your weekly envelopes can be mailed to the parish office or use the online giving.

With online giving you can give a single donation or recurring donations to our church, specific parish ministries, or Diocesan appeals, etc. Instructions on how to fill out the form are available on the online giving page.

Everyday Saints

Growing up I thought saints were larger than life people with extraordinary stories. The thought that I could one day be revered as a saint by anyone seemed crazy. I wrote my essays on different saints every year in Catholic school right around All Saints Day. These were stories about people I had never met, and I assumed I would never meet anyone like them going forward.

Now that I am older, I realize that I was wrong back then and my immaturity of both mind and heart did not allow me to see that there are saints among us all the time. I have met many people in my life that I would call living saints. They are holy people who give of themselves to God and others in profound ways. Their relationship with Jesus is evident and they live their lives in ways that people witness the transformative power of love.

As a child I was wrong about saints, but even more importantly, I didn't fully realize that all of us are called to be saints! Me, a saint? Holiness is not something simply studied in books. It is the way of life we are all called to live. The call comes from Jesus Christ and each of us must respond. If we are still thinking like children, we may choose to stay silent and live accordingly. If we are more mature in our faith then we might not only respond, we might one day have a school child write a report about us. ~ Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Sharing the Gospel

Instead of being bossy, be kind and humble. Instead of being angry, work hard to make peace. Instead of wanting to be popular or rich, spend time with kids who are lonely. When you care about other people, God will smile. He will reward you in heaven.

Mission for the Week

On the playground, look for someone who is alone. Invite that child to play with you.

Prayer

God, help me to make peace in my family and in my school.

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

Vocation or Calling

Can you explain what we mean by a vocation or calling? I have heard this term used in many different contexts and am not sure what it means. Does it apply to religious life?

A vocation or calling refers to a spiritual experience whereby a person senses within oneself the closeness of God and what he is asking in one's life. It is a realization of what one's part in God's plan could be.

Vocation comes in all kinds of ways. Some are as dramatic as St. Paul's, being knocked off his horse, blinded, and hearing God's voice. Others are less dramatic, often occurring over time through little events and personal interests. Others happen in a hurry, accompanied by great spiritual insight or conversion.

We often think that this applies to religious vocation, but in fact, every Christian has a vocation, a calling to serve others in and through the church. Whether married or single, religious or lay, we are all called to live out our baptismal commitment to preach and teach the Gospel message. Each of us has our role to play in God's plan, and we become coworkers with God in the work of redemption. With a little confidence, a willing spirit and God's grace, we can and will respond to his unique call.
