Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Eccl 1:2; 2:21-23 / Ps 90:3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 14, 17 [1] / Col 3:1-5, 9-11 / Lk 12:13-21

"If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

(Ps 90)

Gospel Meditation

What makes us feel secure? Many people look to tangible forms of security that will safeguard their livelihood and prepare for their future. We tend to associate security with things: the accumulation of goods and possessions, retirement funds, savings accounts, and substantial incomes. While acquiring these promises a life with less anxiety and worry, we actually find ourselves more preoccupied and consumed with their growth and preservation. We worry more! We can easily become quasi-hoarders, consumed with obtaining more tangible crutches. Our minds and hearts are always restless, and we never seem to be at peace.

Why do we so easily give our self-worth, value, and sense of security over to things? God certainly does not deny us the pursuit of a productive and enjoyable life but where do we draw the line? A sense of well-being and happiness can easily get deferred to sometime "in the future" while we continue to wrestle with the toils of today. There is no guarantee that there will be an earthly tomorrow and all of the frenzy we bring to securing our state in life will be for naught. When we are called from this world, will we even know where to begin to look for the tranquility and repose our souls so desperately need?

We cannot be hoarders, pursuers of vanity, or greedy. They just don't work as they are too dependent on things that can fall apart. Rather than always feeling the need for more, we need to learn how to be grateful for what we have. By learning to look inward we can learn how to live lives of faithful service to others. "Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has, and this requires transforming greed into gratitude (St. John Chrysostom)." We all need to be good stewards of what has been entrusted to our care. Grateful hearts recognize the true source of what we have and realize that our true treasure lies not in what matters to us but to God.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Ecclesiastes speaks of "vanity" in the sense of emptiness or futility, such as those who seek to build their legacy or those who suffer with a restless heart. How are you able to remain focused on the important things in your life?

Second Reading

Paul teaches the Colossians that the key to focusing on "what is above, not on what is on earth" is to live a moral and upright life, grounded in your faith in Christ.

Who do you know who does this well?

Gospel

Jesus tells the parable of the rich fool in response to a question about inheritance, warning the crowd about over dependence on possessions. How do you balance your material needs with "what matters to God?"

Mission Appeal

August 6 & 7

Fr. George Sabi Alumparambil, a priest from the Diocese of Alleppey, will be visiting our parish on August 6th and 7th to share the missionary context of the diocese. The Diocese of Alleppey is also where Fr. Cleetus is from. It is situated in the south west coast of India. Out of a total population of 1,260,971 in the area, Catholics who form the diocese amount to 165,900. We have 88 parishes and missions. Our personnel strength includes, 114 native diocesan priests, 350 religious sisters and over 1584 catechists serving the diocese in carrying out faith formation and family apostolate.

The diocese of Alleppey is so grateful to you for giving Fr. George an opportunity to make this mission appeal to accompany him in the successful implementation of the relief projects. More information will be posted next week.

Catholic in Recovery

Beginning August 11, 6:00 pm
Holy Trinity Parish

Contact: Jana Devereux

Catholic in Recovery provides healing from addictions, compulsions, and unhealthy attachments. Meetings combine the spiritual principles of 12-step recovery and the sacraments of the Catholic Church. Join others in recovery as we overlap scripture from Sunday's Mass readings, liturgical themes, and recovery topics with honest discussion and prayer. Confidentiality is protected. We welcome those recovering from any addiction, compulsion, or unhealthy attachment:

- Alcoholism
- Drug addiction
- Compulsive overeating
- Restricted eating
- Lust/pornography addiction
- Gambling addiction
- Technology addiction
- Compulsive spending/debting
- Codependency
- Control, fear, resentment, & grief

Visit: www.catholicinrecovery.com or contact Jana.

Mass Cancellation

Please note 6:30am Mass has been cancelled from August 5 - 19. It will resume August 22.

Senior Visitation Ministry

Who We Are

Contact Charlene Agles
charleneagles@gmail.com, 916-984-9602

We are a group of dedicated compassionate individuals, from St. John's Parish, who volunteer their time in visiting the home-bound and elderly in our community who live alone or in an assisted living facility.

During their visits they may offer:

- Spiritual and Emotional Support
- Companionship
- Socialization

Men, women, and couples are welcome to have visits from our Ministry.

If you are interested in having someone visit you, a relative, friend, acquaintance or may be aware of anyone that would benefit from our Ministry, please contact the Parish Office, go to the Parish website, or contact Charlene. There are brochures in the church vestibule. We are hoping to be able to start visiting again in the very near future.

Thank You for Your Support!

Bulletin Ad Space is Still Available

Joanne Sullins from LPi was working with us this past week securing advertisers for our weekly bulletin. A big "thank you" to all our current advertisers who have decided to renew their ads this year. We also want to acknowledge and thank the new advertisers that have come aboard. If you would like to get your business, service or favorite charity added to the business directory page, there is still time.

Remember, their support makes it possible for our bulletins to be printed weekly at little or no cost to the parish. The bulletins are our primary means of communication and vital to our Parish. It would be nice if all of us would consider reciprocating the generosity of our advertisers by supporting them when we need products and services. Let them know we truly appreciate their loyal support of our weekly bulletin. Thank you again!

Our peaceful and prayerful presence continues at Planned Parenthood, 201 29th & B Street, Sacramento on Tuesdays 8am-3pm, Wednesdays 8am-3pm and Thursdays 8am-1pm. A Carpool leaves St. Johns at 10:30am on Wednesdays for an 11:00am-1:00pm stay at the clinic.

Come pray with us if you can. Your presence can be life-saving. Numerous women have come to us many months after they changed their mind from getting the abortion to say that because we were there praying, it was the sign from God to drive away. He works miracles at the sidewalk in many ways including through us as compassionate Christians reaching out to women who have had abortions in the past or seeking one now. His forgiveness is infinite... Jesus, we trust in You, as we unite together, peacefully praying that someday abortion will be unthinkable.

Call Joanne for carpool information.

Do you not know that your body is a temple of the holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own?

For you have been purchased at a price.

Therefore, glorify God in your body.

1 Corinthians 6:19-20

You were transfigured on the Mountain, O Christ God, showing Your Disciples as much of Your glory as they could hold.

Let Your eternal light shine also upon us sinners, through the prayers of the Mother of God, O Giver of Light, glory to You.

Inspiration of the Week

Greed is more present and powerful in our lives than we care to admit. We like our "stuff" and are hesitant to part with it.

What we convince ourselves that we really need, we really do not. If everything we own is taken away from us tomorrow, life will continue. We will find happiness again. How many relationships are ruined because of inheritance issues? Our possessions cannot come with us when we die.

Why do we foolishly think that we cannot live without them here? Wealth and happiness do not have physical origins. True wealth and happiness are gifts of God's kingdom and matters of heart and soul.

We are much more than what we possess, and greed is more real and operative than we think. Let us begin our journey to detachment with an honest admission.

We often place more importance on things than on people and God. Ask God to accept our conflicted hearts and give us the courage to do things differently.

Since 1882, membership in the Knights of Columbus has been open to men 18 years of age or older who are "practical" (that is, practicing) Catholics in union with the Holy See. Since that time, the Knights of Columbus has understood "practical Catholic" to mean a Catholic who accepts the teaching authority of the Catholic Church on matters of faith and morals, aspires to live in accord with the precepts of the Catholic Church, and is in good standing in the Catholic Church.

What It Means To Be A Knight of Columbus

We are catholic men to lead, serve, protect and defend. We share a desire to be better husbands, fathers, sons, neighbors and role models to put charity, Parish and community first.

Our Mission & Our Faith

Together we are empowering men to live their faith at home, in their parish, at work and in their community. Our goal is to help men, their families, and their parishes grow closer to Christ. Through our programs and resources, we provide opportunities to live and spread the Catholic faith.

Responding To Need Since Our Founding

Service and Charity are the heart of the Knights. Founded to meet the needs of immigrants, refugees and families suffering from the death of a breadwinner, the Knights began a small service organization and has grown into a worldwide financial and charitable organization.

Knights of Columbus Charities

Charity is the heart of our work and our faith---and it always has been. For the Knights of Columbus Charity means supporting a virtually boundless variety of projects.

Knights of Columbus Insurance

The Knights of Columbus is a fraternal benefit society, which means we provide financial security to our members and their families, while turning premiums into charitable impact.

Faith in Action

Lead your parish and community in faith, family, service and life programs through your local Knights council.

Please see one of the ushers after Mass if you have any questions to join.

Lectio Eucharist Bible Study

10 week bible study presented by

Dr. Brandt Pitre

Begins August 4, 2022 at 7pm, via Zoom

Contact: Angela Reed

916-342-3368, recatechists60@gmail.com

Our Holy Mother Church has always taught about Christ's True Presence in the Eucharist. However, a pew research poll shows that only 20 -30% of active Catholic parishioners believe in the True Presence. How could this be, when the Holy Eucharist is the source and summit of our faith? We should ALL believe in the True Presence. Somehow, that teaching was lost and it will stay lost if we cannot pass this down to our future generations. It is of utmost importance that we learn about God's plan regarding the Holy Eucharist. We cannot pass down what we do not have. Perhaps this is the reason why our church has instituted the next 3 years to be a Eucharistic Revival! You and your family have everything to gain by you taking this Bible Study where you dive into scriptures to reveal what God has planned for us in the Holy Eucharist. You will be amazed, surprised and in awe of all the prefigurements hidden in plain sight in the scriptures that point to the Eucharist. Your knowledge and understanding will increase and your love for Jesus in the Eucharist will be affirmed and strengthened. You will be able to explain why you believe in the True Presence of our Lord and pass on the most important teaching of the Catholic Faith. You have everything to gain by learning more about the Holy Trinity and how much you are loved by them.

Please sign up ASAP so that we can arrange for you to get a workbook! For more information or if you would like to sign up, please contact Angela.

2nd Collection

This weekend is the fifth Sunday of the month and the second collection is for our St. Vincent de Paul Conference. Your financial support allows us to assist those in need in our community with rent and utilities. Although we receive food donations from local grocery stores and parishioners, funds are also used to stock our food pantry. Thank you for your continued support.

Next weekend our 2nd collection will be for our RE Program and SJND.

Born into a well-respected family in 1696, in Marianella, in the Kingdom of Naples, St Alphonsus received an exceptional education through private tutors and was conferred degrees in civil and canon law at 16. He practiced law for 8 years before he turned to the Church. He was ordained a priest in 1726. St. Alphonsus traveled for 26 years in Kingdom of Naples preaching. His style of ministry was called "mission among the people," he and a group of priests or lay brothers would go to rural areas, staying for a time to teach, preach, and pray with the people there. A brilliant preacher, he was able to connect with ordinary people and his teaching and sermons were marked by his compassion. In a time of restrictive Church rule, where fear of God was truly fear, St. Alphonsus taught about God's redeeming love. He also had a special devotion to Mary, praying to her for intercession and including devotions to her in his teaching. He wrote extensively, more than 100 books which have been through thousands of editions. His books are still available today and have been translated into more than 60 languages. In 1762 St. Alphonsus was made a bishop by Pope Clement XIII, however, he was eventually allowed to resign his post because of his ill health. He was paralyzed for a time from rheumatic fever in 1775, and had rheumatism so severe it was deforming, bending his head so far forward that his chin rested on his chest. He died peacefully at the age of 90 in 1787. Canonized in 1839 by Pope Gregory XVI, and in 1871 he was named a doctor of the church by Pope Pius IX. In 1950 he was declared patron of moral theologians by Pope Pius XII.

What We Store in the Barn

I once knew a godly woman who had truly tasted the bitterness of this earthly life. This woman knew pain. She knew sacrifice. She knew hard labor and loss, including the death of a cherished child. She worked each day at a low-paying job, waiting patiently for her 65th birthday, when she could retire and devote herself full-time to her grandchildren. She crossed off the dwindling days on her calendar like a first grader waiting for Christmas.

Ninety-eight days before she was set to retire, she died suddenly. Her name was erased from the schedule at work and penciled over with that of her replacement hire.

All things are vanity.

I think we all know someone like this, don't we? If the details aren't exactly the same, the outline of the story is: someone labors "with wisdom and knowledge and skill," in the words of Ecclesiastes. And what profit comes to him? Sorrow and grief all his days. The proverbial barn filled with harvest and left to rot.

But I'll let you in on a secret: this isn't a sad story. I've only told you part of it.

This woman heard, daily, the voice of God, and against it she never hardened her heart, whatever news it brought her. This woman loved as hard as she worked. Every action was a form of evangelization. To talk to her was to feel the embrace of Christ.

As much as she waited for that retirement that never came, it was never the harvest in her barn.

This is what it means to be a true steward: to seek what is above.

~ Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

KID'S CORNER

Sharing the Gospel

When you put Jesus first in your life, you will have everything you need. Having a lot of stuff won't really make you or God happy. God doesn't want you to keep your blessings to yourself. God wants you to share what he has given you. Be "rich" in only the things that God cares about. The closer you grow with God, the happier you will be.

Enlarge the picture square by square.

Mission for the Week

When you get home, pack three toys and three books to give to children without any.

Dear God, help me to remember what is really important to you.

Lk 12:13-21

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Gospel Differences

Why do the Gospels differ in their details?
 I was surprised to learn that not all of the Gospels tell the same stories, for example, the Nativity.
 Doesn't this take away from their credibility?

Take any event that happens, from family trips to national politics and ask two or three different people to explain what happened. You will get a different version of the same story.

People tend to tell the story from their perspective, and past experience shades what we recall and how we recall it. Our choice of words and what details we leave in or out is also influenced by the audience who is listening to our tales.

The Gospel writers are no different. Each one tells the story of Jesus from their own perspective. Versions differ in some details, not because one is true and the other is not, but because each Gospel writer, or Evangelist, has a different theological point to communicate as well as a different audience for whom he is writing. He picks and chooses the details of his Gospel based on what message he is preaching, what his audience may already know, and what message they need to hear. The various details of the Gospels point more to their authenticity as a record of the church's experience and understanding of Jesus. In a good study Bible, the background notes for each Gospel contain a lot of information that helps us better understand each Evangelist and his message.
