Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

2 Sm 7:1-5, 8b-12, 14a, 16 / Ps 89:2-3, 4-5, 27, 29 [2a] / Rom 16:25-27 / Lk 1:26-38

"For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord."

(Ps 89)

Gospel Meditation

In Blaise Pascal's work, Pensees, he says: "What else does this craving, and this helplessness, proclaim but that there was once in man a true happiness, of which all that now remains is the empty print and trace? This he tries in vain to fill with everything around him, seeking in things that are not there the help he cannot find in those that are, though none can help, since this infinite abyss can be filled only with an infinite and immutable object; in other words by God himself."

We have a difficult time accepting that fulfillment and happiness are not achieved by our own merits but through a relationship with God. We are hardwired for this relationship and it is in our DNA. The simple fact is that we come from God and are designed to return to God. If our beginning and our end define who we are, why would we not want to seek the One who can truly satisfy? The world does not realize that it is waiting. It is waiting for the birth of God in time, within one's soul and in eternity. We get so confused by seeking other momentary satisfactions that we misinterpret the hunger within. We crave God.

The union of God and humanity, revealed in Jesus Christ, is precisely what sets us on a straight path, orders our relationships, establishes proper focus and goals and tells us whose kingdom we really are meant to serve. We are so lost. God is with us. The prophet Nathan told this to King David, the angel said this to Mary and the birth of Christ brings this Good News to us. We do not need to be busily looking for more things but must learn to find contentment and blessing in the One Presence. This is the beautiful simple message of Advent!

If you are feeling unsettled, anxious, angry, disgruntled, disconnected, unhappy, worried, fearful, off center, becoming overly self-indulgent, unable to spend time alone and without distraction, then there's a good chance you are lost. Now is the time to allow God to find you! Ponder the holy simplicity of Mary's call to be the Mother of God. "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." When we are helpless and at home with our emptiness, God will fill us. Our Savior has come.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Today's reading from Second Samuel narrates the context in which God establishes his covenantal promise to King David around the year 1000 B.C. In the birth of Jesus, God fulfills his covenant with David. What does this teach us about the idea of "salvation history?"

Second Reading

Paul concludes his letter to the Romans with a hymn of praise to God for the long-awaited revelation that all are saved and justified through faith in Christ. In what ways are you praising God during this season of Advent?

Gospel

Today's Gospel reading records the angel Gabriel's announcement to Mary of the upcoming birth of Christ. Mary's acceptance of God's will for her life ("May it be done to me according to your word.") models for all of us unconditional faith. How can we encourage others to embrace such faith John the Baptist responds in humility, with a clear sense of his own call.

Do you humbly accept God's call in your life?

Christmas 2020

Dear Parishioners,

The past 2020 had been bitter, sweet. Bitter because there were lots of ordeals we had to go through; the outbreak of coronavirus pandemic (COVID-19), the cancellation of the celebration of public Masses and other Sacraments, the closure of churches that led to outdoor services, just to name a few. Nevertheless, sweet because these trials only make our faith steadfast and stronger. The desire to be with the Lord gets even stronger. During this difficult time, God's faithful especially here at St. John the Baptist Parish have proven their unwavering love for the Lord.

As we commemorate the birth of the Lord Jesus, let us ask for His continued guidance and protection. He will never leave us untended for He is the Emmanuel, which means God-is-with-us. God is bigger and stronger than all our problems. Sometimes, He allows us to become weak and vulnerable, only to make us stronger.

On behalf of Fr. Cleetus, Fr. Haran, Deacons Bill and Jim, and the Parish Staff, thank you for your generosity with your time, talent, and treasure. I ask for your continued generosity and support as we embark on another precarious journey. "God loves a cheerful giver."

I am wishing all of you a very Merry Christmas and a bountiful New Year!

Fr. Renier Siva,
Pastor

Christmas Mass Sign-ups

Sign-ups for Mass coordinators, EMs and lectors for Christmas Masses will be in the sacristy.

2021 Mass Intentions

Scheduled Mass Intentions are being accepted for the first quarter of the new year (Jan through March only). Since the Parish Office remains closed, please mail in or call the office with the intention and a possible date and time you would like to reserve. If the particular Mass is not available we will reserve the next open opportunity. There is a limit of 5 intentions per family.

Donations can be made online or mailed to the Parish Office. Please include "Mass Intention for" and the prayer intention noted in the memo section of the check or in the comments on the online giving form.

St. John's Gift Shop

Our Parish Gift Shop is open for your shopping needs by appointment only. Please check the sign posted on the gift shop door to contact Connie.

Christmas Mass

If the COVID-19 restrictions do not get better before Christmas, Mass schedule stays the same, with the addition of one Mass at 1pm.

Christmas Masses are as follows:

- Dec 24th: 3pm
- Dec 25th: 10:00am, 11:30am, and 1pm

If it's raining outside, we will stream on Facebook. Parishioners can stay in their car or stay at home and watch the Mass via Facebook Live. At the end of the Mass, Communion will be distributed at the vestibule of the Church.

If however; restrictions are lifted before Christmas, with 25% capacity or 100, whichever is less, Mass times are as follows:

- Dec 24th: 4pm (Church)
4:15pm (Gallagher)
7pm (Church)
12 midnight (Church)
- Dec 25th: 7:30am (Church/Gallagher)
9:30am (Church/Gallagher)
11:30am (Church/Gallagher)

O God,

You raised up St. John the Baptist to prepare a perfect people for Christ.

Fill Your people with the joy of possessing His grace, and direct the minds of all the faithful in the way of peace and salvation.

Grant that as St. John was martyred for truth and justice, so we may energetically profess our Faith in You, and lead others to the Way, the Truth, and Eternal Life.
Amen.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.

spiritual growth.

The Journey

Advent comes along every year and will continue to do so until Jesus returns. As this season draws to a close, we can each ask ourselves, “Am I now any better a disciple of Jesus Christ and more of a steward of all my gifts than before the Advent season started?” I have been on this earth for 40+ years. I have had 40+ Advents to draw closer to God and to work on taking more seriously my baptismal call. Some have gone better than others, but I would like to think my spiritual life progressed at least a small amount during each of them.

Conversion is a process. Stewardship is about a way of living and it is about more than simply being generous when a situation calls for it. Stewardship and conversion go hand-in-hand and we are always moving closer to holiness in Jesus Christ. Living in this way takes practice and commitment. If this Advent didn’t go as you had hoped, remember is not really an end. It is just another step along your journey.

This Christmas, while you are giving and receiving gifts and hopefully spending time with those you love, may you take the time to cherish the true gift that came to us over 2000 years ago and continues to call us to this day: Jesus. Let us be grateful beyond measure for this gift above all gifts, let us continue on our journey, and let our lives give testimony to the one who leads us.

Inspiration for the Week

Does the world realize that it is waiting? As we go about all of the busyness of our lives and entertain our distractions, there are many holes and gaps in our lives that need to be filled. We are always wanting more, but not really sure what that “more” needs to be. Fulfillment, happiness, contentment, and true satisfactions are fleeting occurrences and often come to us in illusive ways. What we think is the ultimate fix to our anxious emptiness really is only a fancy trend that we entertain. The world does not realize any more today than it did over two thousand years ago that it is waiting for a Savior. We need a Savior. We need to see and embrace the God who has broken into history and become one with us. It is this union of God and man that sets us on a straight path, orders our relationships, establishes proper focus and goals, and tells us whose kingdom we really are meant to serve. The world does not know how truly lost it is. Do you realize how lost you are and that the One you need most is here among us and within your grasp?

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

2nd Collection

This weekend our 2nd collection is for the Retirement Fund for Religious. Make a difference. "Every dollar makes a difference in covering our expenses," says a Trappist abbot. Hundreds of US religious communities struggle to provide for aging members because most senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests served for little pay. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps these communities bridge the gap, offering support for medications, nursing care, and other necessities. Please be generous.

Our Sincere Gratitude

Thank you to those who have been so generous to the parish with their contributions. For those of you who are able, please continue supporting our parish financially as generous as you can. You can continue mailing your collection envelopes and for those who are interested in using our online giving, don't hesitate to call Kashmir for help at: (916) 985-2065.

Again "Thank You" for your continued support. It is heartwarming to see your support of St. John.

Do You Have Any Christmas Themed Unused Greeting Cards Available?

The Christmas and holiday seasons are especially difficult times for people who are incarcerated. Chaplain Greg Mellor invites you to contribute to this year's New Folsom Prison Christmas Card Drive. With the help of donors, over 5,000 Christmas cards will be distributed so that each inmate will have two cards to send to family and friends. Unused Christmas cards can be placed in the box in the vestibule from now through December 31.

There are lots of requests for help this month of December. However the poor and the homeless are always with us. The Divine Mercy Ministry is grateful for your support. Over 250 were served last month. The collection cart remains in the church vestibule for your donations. Items most requested are cup-of-soups, peanut butter and cheese crackers, hot chocolate and oatmeal packets, nutritious bars, raisins and fruit cups. There is also a request for gloves and socks. Thank you for sharing Christ's Indescribable Gifts of Love through your material generosity. All will be delivered on December 23.

Sharing the Gospel

Think of the people you trust. These are people you can count on, no matter what happens. Both Mary and Elizabeth were amazed to learn that they were pregnant. God had surprised each of them with a special miracle - a baby. God trusted them both to take care of their babies. Mary and Elizabeth trusted God to help them. You can trust God, too.

Mission for the Week

Name three reasons you can always trust God.

Prayer

God, help me to trust you like Mary and Elizabeth did.

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

Today marks the end of the Advent season and the beginning of the Christmas season. We have lighted four candles these past four weeks and asked God to help us be present to our neighbors and friends. Now in the Christmas season we are called to be Christ in the flesh to our world.

Make ourselves ready to WELCOME
the Lord

Let us pray...

God, you became human through the obedience of a simple young woman named Mary. Mary is our model of faith. May we be faithful to your word as Mary was. Give us the courage to face each day with the yes that Mary gave to you. We ask this through the incarnate God, who comes to us again during this Christmas season. Amen.
