Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 10:26-33

Jean Améry, a Holocaust survivor tortured by the Nazis, later wrote about the abyss of human evil. He described his reaction as an “indignant despair.” Haven’t we all, to some degree, felt that abyss opened beneath us? A sudden loss, a violent headline, a moment of loneliness or panic, when the world feels fragile and meaning seems to collapse?

It is to this fear that Jesus speaks in today’s Gospel: “Do not be afraid of those who can kill the body.” (Matthew 10:28) He does not deny evil or pretend we will never suffer. Instead, He reframes the abyss: do not fear those who can kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Your life is seen, known, and counted by the Father. Even the hairs of your head, even the sparrow’s fall.

This is no superficial comfort. Jesus himself has entered the abyss: suffering, death, even our sense of forsakenness, and he has come through it. That is why his words, “Do not be afraid,” hold such weight. They do not erase the abyss but build a bridge across it.

Faith is not pretending everything is fine. It is staring into the abyss and still choosing trust. And in that trust, we discover we are never alone. Christ stands with us, and the Father’s care surrounds us. That is the only comfort deep enough for our (often fearful) hearts.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

Jeremiah trusts in the Lord despite his fear of being attacked and persecuted.

Can you think of a time when you had to totally trust in God?

2nd Reading

Paul compares and contrasts the impact of Adam and Christ on our lives.

Who would you say has made the biggest impact on your life so far?

Gospel

Jesus warns his disciples against spiritual forces that seek to destroy both the body and the soul.

Where do you see malevolent spiritual forces at work in our world?

Pope Leo’s Monthly Intention for June

For the values of sports

Let us pray that sports be an instrument of peace, encounter, and dialogue among cultures and nations, and that they promote values such as respect, solidarity, and personal growth.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

“What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light.” We all hear God’s voice whispering in our hearts. Discipleship means speaking those words out loud. We all feel the Spirit sing into our souls. Discipleship means that we dance to the tune.

WELCOME

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Shalom World - America Prays

30 Days of Continuous Rosary for the Country

As the United States approaches the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, Shalom World has launched "America Prays: One Nation Under God," a nationwide 30-day virtual prayer initiative from June 4 to July 4, 2026, inviting the faithful across the country to unite online in continuous Rosary before the Blessed Sacrament. Held in support of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' vision for national spiritual renewal during the nation's semiquincentennial year, the initiative emphasizes that true freedom and national renewal are rooted in the Lordship of Jesus Christ. We encourage the faithful to join in reciting one Rosary a day for the country. You can join the prayer here: shalomworld.org/America-Prays or download the FREE Shalom World app and join the America Prays LIVE channel.

Blessing of Fathers

God and Father of all creation, we come before you today with humble hearts.

You are our model of a loving father.

When we fail and fall short of your expectations,

*you are always there at the end of the day with open arms,
ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.*

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children.

*Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures.
Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.*

We ask all this in the name of Jesus.

Amen.

Companioned Prayer

Contact: Bill Stobbe or Deacon Bill Goeke

Did you know that on Tuesday mornings you can come to Holy Mass at 8:15, and then when Mass is over move into the chapel area (if you are not already there) and in about 10 minutes you can pray the Rosary with the Rosary Group that meets there every morning after the 8:15 Mass. And, when you are finished with the Rosary, stay for lectio divina and Companioned Prayer, which start about 10 minutes later at 9:45 there in the Chapel. So, make it a 1-2-3! What a powerful morning of prayer! New to the Rosary, or lectio divina, or Companioned Prayer? Don't worry, others will lead you. If you wish to come for Companioned Prayer at 5:00 PM this Tuesday instead of 9:45 AM, contact Deacon Bill Goeke. So many ways to be drawn into the special grace and love of our Lord!

Vocations Cross Program

We invite our parish families to participate. It is our hope to support the Church in her effort to pray for priests and for an increase in priestly and religious vocations.

- Each weekend a family / individual will have the opportunity to pray for vocations. Take the Cross (kit) into your home and commit to saying the prayers provided on a daily basis.
- Return the complete kit the following weekend and it will be passed to a different family.

If you would like to take the Cross home, there is a sign up binder in the vestibule on the Welcome table. Just fill in your name at the Mass you will be attending. After communion you will be called up by the celebrant to receive the kit and a special blessing. You can return it the following week at any Mass. Just place the kit by the sign up binder. For more information on Vocations visit: scd.org/vocations.
