Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Matthew 25:1-13

My first instinct upon waking is to grab my phone and start scrolling. Sometimes I do it for 20 or 30 minutes, and it makes me feel distracted and agitated. I feel guilty, too, for wasting my first moments of the day. So recently, I committed those minutes to reading a book that would focus my mind on Jesus. I enjoy the fact that I am not scattering my attention as much. I feel more peaceful and focused on God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks about attention. He contrasts wise and foolish virgins, and then sums up the teaching by saying, "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour" (Matthew 25:13). The basic currency of the human heart is attention. The foolish bridesmaids are not immoral or malicious; they are unfocused, distracted, and unprepared. They assume that borrowed oil will suffice, that someone else's readiness can make up for their own lack. But the attention which is love cannot be outsourced. A relationship with God requires personal attentiveness cultivated over time.

This Gospel leaves us with an honest question. What am I giving my attention to each day, and am I forming a heart that is awake, watchful, and ready to meet the Lord when He comes? How can I use key moments of my day to focus my attention where I need it to be?

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

According to our Jewish sage, wisdom is a virtue that desires to be known by those who seek her. How does anyone know they have found wisdom?

2nd Reading

Paul offers hope in the bodily resurrection of the dead for the Thessalonians who are grieving the death of a loved one. How does your faith in Jesus sustain you in times of grief and distress?

Gospel

In the Parable of the Ten Virgins, Jesus teaches his disciples the importance of planning ahead for the unknown. Do you consider yourself a pre-planner?

Pope Leo's Monthly Intention for November

For the proper use of wealth

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

The Christian life is a life of waiting, for the Bridegroom is long delayed. We can grow too comfortable in the waiting that we forget what it's all for. So let us look to our lamps and always remember — the waiting will not last forever.

Welcome

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

Join Deacon Jim McFadden as he leads us through his book. The book provides a fresh, original interpretive lens through which to understand the intricacies of the Bible, particularly the Old Testament, which contains the promise eventually fulfilled in Jesus of Nazareth—the Savior of the world. This insightful series will help the reader process biblical content at a much higher and deeper level of faith that has the power to purposefully direct our paths and transform lives.

Nov 9: King David: God Promises an Eternal Dynasty
Nov 16: The Prophet Jeremiah: Exile and Hope
Nov 23: Jesus: The Fulfillment of the Messianic Hope

To register for the series, please email Theresa Grant. You will receive an email prior to the scheduled session with the Zoom link & instructions. Book are available for purchase in the Parish Gift Shop, Amazon or En Route Books and Media.

November is the month of the Holy Souls. The Church encourages us to remember the deceased members of our families in a special way. Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 22:34-40

Make sure your heart is ready for Jesus. One day Jesus will come back. If your heart is empty and dark - without love - you will be left out. But if your heart is filled with God's love for other people, Jesus will bring you into heaven with him forever.

Prayer

God, fill my heart with your love. I want to be ready for Jesus.
