Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Christmas Day: Is 52:7-10 / Ps 98:1, 2-3, 3-4, 5-6 [3] / Heb 1:1-6 / Jn 1:1-18 or 1:1-5, 9-14

"Today is born our Savior, Christ the Lord."

(Ps 96)

Gospel Meditation

As we age, time seems to pass more quickly. Years seemingly fly by as one holiday flows into the next, January quickly becomes December and life maintains its hectic pace. What do we accomplish in all of that busyness? Perhaps technology is responsible for some of the frenzy, keeping us isolated in our social media worlds, communicating through texts rather than in person, and always connected to world events. We're over stimulated in many ways by information, noise, opinions, and ideologies. Yet, we still find the time to decorate our homes, purchase gifts, and plan Christmas gatherings. We know, however, that the true meaning of Christmas is not found in twinkling lights, beautifully adorned trees, perfectly set tables or exchanged gifts. We are being called to something deeper and more authentic.

Christmas reminds us to look for God along the way of our lives and not get distracted by the illusions around us. Our world's complexity can leave us feeling displaced, desperate, alone, neglected, and unimportant. Joseph and Mary felt that way too. In the midst of all that captures and intrigues us in our self-created virtual worlds, is this longing for the anchor of faith to keep us grounded and make sense of it all. Only faith can give us the perspective to see what truly matters in life. We discover our divinely blessed humanity. The uncertain and challenging journey to Bethlehem gives way to the tender moments of birth and its embrace. Christmas softens us and slows us down a bit. It shows us Jesus as the light who enlightens everyone. It shows us the truth.

The faith that comes from Christmas calms our fears and allows us to go into the nighttime of our lives courageously. We are never lost or alone. We need to stop and savor more of life's moments before they slip away in time. God is with us, loving us, and leading us where we need to be. God is born again and again in every soul willing to give birth to His presence.

God connects us and provides us with a place where we feel safe and welcome: home.

Merry Christmas!

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Isaiah prophesied of God's promise to send "a child to us" who will be "a great light" and bring us "abundant joy and great rejoicing." How will you show to others today your joy at the birth of Jesus?

Second Reading

Paul teaches Titus that Jesus is "the grace of God" who has come to save all people. In response, we believers are called "to live temperately, justly, and devoutly in this age."

What makes this challenging to do in our time?

Gospel

We hear Luke's account of the birth of Jesus. Luke tells us how the message of the angel of the Lord frightened the shepherds. In response, the angel said, "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people ..."

How will your family celebrate today the birth of Jesus, our Lord and Messiah?

Christmas Greetings from Our Pastor

Merry Christmas!

“God has spoken to us through His Son; the Word was made flesh. Thus, has salvation been revealed to all the nations.”

Every year, we celebrate the greatest event in human history — the birth of the God made man. “And the word was made flesh and dwelt among us.” He who is divine stripped Himself of His divinity to be one of us in all things except, sin. This day reminds us of God’s unconditional love, allowing his Only-begotten Son to be born in our midst. And his presence in the Holy Family, brought joy and hope to all human family.

May He continue to be present in your family not only during this Christmas season but all throughout the year. Allow the baby Jesus to be a part of your family, let him grow in your midst, especially in your heart. Guide your children to grow with Him, to be like Him, and love like Him. Keep Him at the center of your busy life. Our best gift this Christmas is not found under the tree, but in baby Jesus who continues to bring us peace, hope, love, and joy.

On behalf of Fr. Cleetus, Fr. Haran, the Deacons, and the Parish Staff, we wish you a Merry Christmas and a Bountiful New Year!

Fr. Renier C. Siva
Pastor

We praise God for the 540 babies saved, 6 abortion workers converted, and 12 abortion facilities closed. These are the outcomes that we know of during this past "40 Days for Life" campaign nationwide. There may even be more babies saved because moms don't always share this news with people outside the clinic. Thank you all for your prayers, fasting, and being a witness for life.

Our focus now are Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, which are late term surgical abortion days.

Prayer and help continue throughout the year so if you can come out to pray, bring a folding chair and come with us on a Wednesday leaving St. Johns at 10:30am staying from 11:00am-1:00pm. Call Joanne.

Today marks the end of the Advent season and the beginning of the Christmas season. We have lit four candles these past four weeks and asked God to help us be present to our neighbors and friends. Now in the Christmas season we are called to be Christ in the flesh to our world. Let us pray...

*God,
you became human through the obedience of a simple young woman named Mary.
Mary is our model of faith.*

May we be faithful to your word as Mary was. Give us the courage to face each day with the yes that Mary gave to you.

*We ask this through the incarnate God,
who comes to us again during this Christmas season.*

Amen.

Excerpt from...What Does the Holy Family Teach Us?

Father Edward Looney (Diocese of Green Bay, WI)

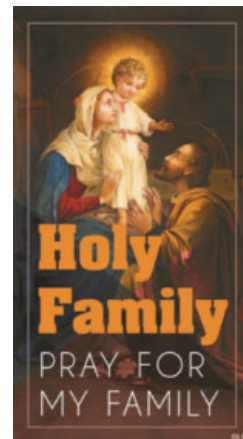

In that home at Nazareth we meet a couple who shows an openness to allowing God to lead their life together. Mary surely had other plans for her life; as many believe, she took a vow of virginity at an early age, so becoming a physical mother was something she did not anticipate. Yet, she heard God's invitation, and knew that His plans were better for her life; therefore, she gives her fiat — that is, her "yes" to God.

St. Joseph opens his heart to the messenger sent by God and takes Mary into his home. This would not be the first or last time that St. Joseph followed God's lead in his life as he protected the Holy Family. After Jesus' birth in Bethlehem, they follow the prompting of an angel to flee into Egypt for safety and wait there until another angelic message leads them back home. The Holy Family is a great example for families everywhere to always be open to whatever God's will might be and to always be listening for God to speak. He might speak his will in prayer or through another person. By our own prayer and discernment, we too can follow God's lead for our life.

A Teacher of Virtue

The home should be the principal place of catechesis. Unfortunately, many families today allow the Church to fill that role alone. The home of Nazareth, in addition to the local synagogue, would have been the place of instruction for the Christ Child. The Holy Family taught Jesus how to read, and at the start of his public ministry Jesus would read from the scroll and declare the passage to be fulfilled in their hearing (see Lk 4:21). Mary and Joseph would have taught the Christ Child how to pray, especially the Shema, and years later Jesus would teach his disciples how to pray with the Our Father. Joseph would have handed on his trade to his son, who later would die on the wood of a cross. Jesus had a great concern for the poor and the marginalized. In the home of Nazareth he learned generosity and kindness. The home of Nazareth reminds us that families have the responsibility of teaching their children the Faith and to model the virtues. Jesus had most excellent parents; Mary was without sin and Joseph is described as a just and prudent man. Parents today can learn from Joseph and Mary on how to teach their children.

Inspiration For the Week

The true meaning of Christmas is not found in the twinkling lights, the beautifully adorned trees, or the exchanged gifts. It is revealed when we find God along the way of our lives, especially when we feel displaced, desperate, and alone. Fleeing from their home, Joseph and Mary cautiously made their way through the uncertain, complex, and dark paths to a longed-for place of safety and welcome. Not sure where to lay their heads, they created makeshift preparations for the birth of their child, the Son of God. God, who always was, is, and will be, without beginning or end is the one constant in life who sees us through difficult and scary times. Jesus is the light, which enlightens everyone, and comes into the world to show us the truth. It is joyful good news that calms our fears and allows us to go forth into the nighttime of our lives, courageously. This is the meaning of Christmas. We are never lost or alone. God is with us, loving us and leading us where we need to be.

 Read the Gospel and Color

Lk 2:1-14

Long ago, God promised to send a Savior into the world. So when Jesus was finally born in Bethlehem, the angels praised God. The angels shared God's great news with the shepherds, so they could find Jesus and praise God, too.

 Mission for the Week

You can praise God like the angels did. Go Christmas caroling together as a family. Sing all of your favorite songs together.

 Puzzle

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares.

Peace on earth to everyone who pleases God.

 Prayer

Dear God, thank you for sending Jesus into the world. I want to praise you like the angels did.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

Are you willing...

To forget what you have done for other people, and to remember what other people have done for you?

To ignore what the world owes you, and to think what you owe the world?

To put your rights in the background, and your duties in the middle distance and your chances to do a little more than your duty in the foreground?

To see that your fellowmen are just as real as you are, and try to look behind their faces to their hearts, hungry for joy?

To own that probably the only good reason for your existence is not what you are going to get out of life, but what you are going to give to life?

To close your book of complaints against the management of the universe, and look around you for a place where you can sow a few seeds of happiness?

Are you willing to do these things even for a day?

Then you can keep Christmas.

Are you willing...

To stoop down and consider the needs and desires of little children?

To remember the weakness and loneliness of people growing old?

To stop asking how much your friends love you, and ask yourself whether you love them enough?

To bear in mind the things that other people have to bear in their hearts?

To try to understand what those who live in the same home with you really want, without waiting for them to tell you?

To trim your lamp so that it will give more light and less smoke, and to carry it in front so that your shadow will fall behind you?

To make a grave for your ugly thoughts, and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate open?

Are you willing to do those things, even for a day?

Then you can keep Christmas.

Are you willing...

To believe that love is the strongest thing in the world, stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger than death - and that the blessed life which began in Bethlehem two thousand years ago is the image and brightness of the Eternal Love?

Then you keep Christmas.

And if you can keep it for a day, why not always?

But you can never keep it alone.

Keeping Christmas

- by HENRY VAN DYKE -

"The Spirit of Christmas."

1905

"There is a better thing than the observance of Christmas day, and that is, keeping Christmas."
