Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 14:22-33

As a young, newly ordained priest, I admired a senior priest who was gifted, beloved, and had changed countless lives. But soon I learned that he had fallen in catastrophic and destructive ways. The painful juxtaposition of good and evil was complex to process. How could someone so seemingly good also be so broken and deceptive? It forced me to confront a sobering truth: leadership in the Church is no guarantee against weakness or sin.

Peter teaches that truth in this week's Gospel. When he sees Jesus walking on the sea, Peter does what leaders do. He goes first. "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." But when he sees how strong the wind is, he becomes frightened and, beginning to sink, cries out, "Lord, save me." Immediately, Jesus stretches out his hand and catches him.

St. Thomas Aquinas observes that Peter overcomes the greater danger of the waves but falters before the lesser threat of the wind. This is the paradox leaders often face. It is not always the great trials that undo us, but the smaller, quieter temptations, such as subtle fears and compromises, that lead us to sink.

The good news is that Jesus does not abandon Peter. He saves him before it is too late. Our frail humanity lives within a rhythm of grace, risk, failure, and mercy. Jesus helps Peter overcome both the obvious and hidden sources of fear, and he promises to do the same for us. So, let us pray for all, especially our spiritual leaders.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

Elijah finds the Lord not in the wind, earthquake or fire, but in a light, silent sound.

When or where do you hear God's voice?

2nd Reading

Paul grieves over the unbelief of his fellow Jews. How can you help family members or friends who do not believe in Jesus?

Gospel

Peter musters the courage to step out onto the water when Jesus calls him.

What are some fears the Lord could help you face?

Monthly Intention for August

For evangelization in the city

Let us pray that in large cities often marked by anonymity and loneliness we find new ways to proclaim the Gospel, discovering creative paths to build community.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

In the midst of life's greatest storms, Jesus comes to us, but we may not recognize him. We may test him. In doing so, he will test us — and likely, we will fail. But when we falter, his saving hand is there.

WELCOME

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

*Heavenly Father, thank you for the precious gift of life.
Help us to cherish and protect this gift, even in the midst of fear, pain, and suffering.*

*Give us love for all people, especially the most vulnerable, and help us bear witness to the truth that every life is worth living.
Grant us the humility to accept help when we are in need, and teach us to be merciful to all.*

Through our words and actions, may others encounter the outstretched hands of Your mercy.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord, Amen

What is the Catholic Church all about? What does it mean to be Catholic? What do Catholics actually believe and why?

Explore the amazing riches of the Catholic Faith. The Catholic Church is extraordinary. Founded by Christ himself, the Catholic Church is where we encounter God in his Word, his sacraments, and his saints. The Church faithfully proclaims the fullness of faith, leaving no truth out. It proclaims the fullness of life, leaving no person out.
It calls all to repent and to believe in God the Father, Son,
and Holy Spirit, the source of all life and salvation.
Maybe you've been Catholic your entire life. Maybe you're just beginning to explore the Catholic Faith.
Wherever you may be in your journey, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and the richness of the Catholic Church. Registration Fee - $30 for workbook & book.

Bishop Gallegos Council Earns Star Council Award

Contact: Michael Bowling, kojc@folsomcatholic.org

The Knights of Columbus Bishop Gallegos Council 6197, Folsom CA is proud to announce that we have once again earned the Star Council Award, the highest recognition presented annually by the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council. This prestigious award recognizes councils that excel in faith-based programming, charitable service, membership growth, and fraternal engagement. Throughout the past year, our Brother Knights volunteered countless hours serving St. John the Baptist Parish and the Folsom community through programs that support our clergy, seminarians, families, youth, people with intellectual disabilities, food drives, parish events, and many other charitable activities. We are grateful to our Brother Knights, their families, and our parish for their continued support. Together, we strive to put our faith into action through the principles of Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism.

If you are a practicing Catholic man interested in serving your parish and community while growing in your faith, we invite you to learn more about the Knights of Columbus. For more information, contact Michael Bowling.

KID'S CORNER

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Read the Gospel and Color

Mt 14:22-33

One night the disciples were caught in a storm, out in the middle of a lake. The winds were strong. The waves crashed against their boat. But Jesus was so powerful, he walked on that stormy lake. Then he completely stopped the storm. No problem you have is ever too big for Jesus. He can do anything. Put all your trust in him.

Prayer

Jesus, I thank you for showing me how powerful you are.

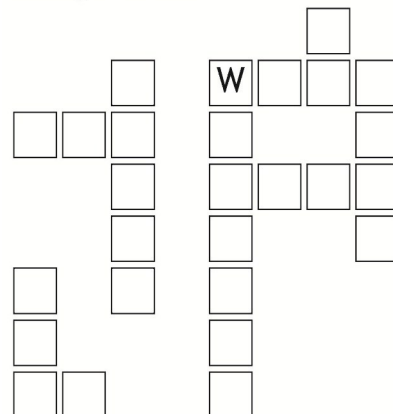

Mission for the Week

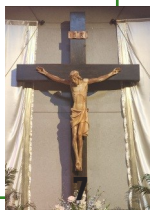

When you are afraid, ask Jesus for help. Remember how powerful he is.
