Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic,
sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Acts 4:8-12 / Ps 118: 1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28, 29 (22) / Jn 3:1-2 / Jn 10:11-18

*"The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone."
(Ps 118)*

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

Recently I was with my little dog Libby at a retreat center in the Arizona desert. I sat in a chair near a ravine filled with shrubs. Unbeknownst to me, Libby wandered down there and disappeared. Suddenly an animal's wild shriek erupted from the area. Without thinking, I bolted down into the ravine fully expecting to see coyotes, javelinas, or rattlesnakes. I didn't care. I desperately wanted to get Libby out of there, without any self-regard. Before I could face whatever danger lay hidden, my dog blissfully trotted out from an entirely different area, utterly unaware that I had (quite heroically) just placed my life on the line.

When the adrenaline wore off, I thought to myself: how far would I have been willing to go to save her? I don't know. But I do know, if I had literally died, my friends and family would have certainly thought me insane for dying for a dog. No offense, Libby.

How passionately Jesus wants us to know him and his willingness to die for us! This week he says, "I know my own and my own know me," and "I lay down my life for the sheep." Here we encounter an insanely excessive love for us. Christianity is a relationship and not simply a religion or ethical code. In Jesus, God rescues and saves us. He laid down his life for you and me — and he has taken it up again. So often we are like Libby — blissfully ignorant of the reality of both our spiritual danger and his saving love. This Easter season, the risen Jesus calls us to be more conscious than ever before about his love. He never ceases to lay down his life for us.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Peter bore witness to the Sanhedrin that it was the crucified and risen Jesus who healed the crippled man and through whom we are saved. Have you ever told someone else about your faith in Jesus?

Second Reading

John tells us that as believers we are destined one day to be like the resurrected and glorified Jesus. How do you think we can best prepare for such a future?

Gospel

As the "Good Shepherd," Jesus speaks of the power given to him by the Father to lay down his life for his sheep. What could you do this week for the benefit of another?

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

*The flesh feeds on THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST, so that the SOUL
TOO may fatten on God.
- Tertullian -*

National Eucharistic Pilgrimage May 21-24, 2024 Diocese of Sacramento

The National Eucharistic Pilgrimage will be traveling through the Diocese of Sacramento from May 21-24, 2024.

Please consider participating in this historic four-day procession across the Diocese from Vallejo to South Lake Tahoe, with stops in Vallejo, Benicia, Rio Vista, Clarksburg, West Sacramento, Sacramento, Folsom, El Dorado Hills, Placerville, and South Lake Tahoe.

These 4 days are part of a national procession to Indianapolis for the National Eucharistic Congress in July. There are many opportunities to participate. Day 3 starts inside Folsom prison for Mass with a procession to St. John the Baptist parish, that evening there will be a Holy Hour for Youth at Holy Trinity in El Dorado Hills. Check out all the details at scd.org/celebrate.

Eucharistic Congress July 17-21, 2024 Lucas Oil Stadium Indianapolis, Indiana

Will You Be There? Registration is open for the 10th National Eucharistic Congress. Join your Catholic brothers and sisters as we encounter the living Jesus Christ, experience profound renewal, and are sent out on mission for the life of the world. This historic 5-day gathering of missionary disciples will be a new Pentecost, a powerful anointing and personal commission to invite others to know Christ. Your life—and our Church—will never be the same. <https://www.eucharisticcongress.org/register>. For more information about Eucharistic Revival year, please contact: Deacon Kevin Staszkow, 916-733-0152 or kstaszkow@scd.org

Saint of the Week

Examples of Our Faith

St. Paschal

Baylón (1540-1592) was born in Spain to impoverished Catholic parents. He worked alongside his father as a shepherd from his childhood until his 20's. He often prayed while working in the fields, listening daily for the church bells that would ring at the point of Elevation of the Eucharist during Mass to remind him to spend time with the Lord. He was known for his work ethic and honesty among his neighbors and desired a religious life from a young age.

Baylón taught himself to read so he could pray the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin, a prayer popular in his time. He would give parts of his dinner away to those in need when it was brought to him as he was shepherding in the field. He also had great compassion for the sick.

At age 24, Baylón joined the Friars Minor and although invited to study to be a priest, he chose to be a brother. In this vocation he served his brothers in many ways, including as a chef, door man, gardener, and official beggar. As a Franciscan lay brother, he took a vow of poverty but remained generous to those poor who came begging at the monastery — to the point that the other friars sometimes tried to limit his giving.

St. Paschal found particular solace while praying before the Blessed Sacrament. His devotion to Christ in the Eucharist was tangible as he was known to spend most of his free time in adoration and would occasionally experience visions after all-night prayer. Because of this devotion, he is the Patron Saint of Eucharistic Congresses and Societies. He was also known widely for his spiritual council. People all over the region would visit him to talk about faith and life. St. Paschal Baylón, pray for us!

Respect Life Ministry

Planned Parenthood - Abortion Clinic
201 29th St., Sacramento
Parish contact: Joanne Dudgeon
916-607-2228

Go be my hands and feet to a world enslaved by fear. Go to the woman who is unexpectedly pregnant and fears the future. Go to your friend who fears reprisal at work because he takes a stand for the protection of human life. Go to your aging parent in failing health who fears being a burden.

St. Johns has a carpool on Thursdays from 10am-noon that goes to pray and offers the love of Christ, compassion, and free resources to women that choose life. If abortion is chosen, resources for healing are offered as well. If you are interested in joining us, call Joanne.

CELEBRATING WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Vocation Prayer

Loving God, You speak to us and nourish us through the life of this church community. In the name of Jesus, we ask you to send your Spirit to us so that men and women among us, young and old, will respond to your call to service and leadership in the church. We pray, especially, in our day, for those who hear your invitation to be a priest, sister, brother, or deacon. May those who are opening their hearts and minds to your call be encouraged and strengthened through our enthusiasm in your service. Amen.

Companioned Prayer Ministry

A wonderful new group of parishioners are currently participating in An Easter Season Companioned Prayer Learning Gatherings on Monday mornings. We are currently mid-way through the four sessions. We are looking forward to more time in prayer with the Lord and each other!

Coming Soon: An Introduction to the Companioned Prayer Ministry
We invite all parishioners to watch the bulletin for a single session offering entitled, "An Introduction to the Companioned Prayer Ministry." Come learn about the inner prayer we pray with Jesus, how we are accompanied by a faith friend, and how it is possible to grow closer to God and each other through reflection on Scripture, listening to God in prayer, and sharing faith within a circle of prayerful parish friends.

Companioned Prayer is a prayer of the presence of God in our lives, and in the companionship of one another. Our circle invites you to explore the tender experience of grace, in the mystery of our faith in the personal experience of God's inspiration.

Companioned Prayer is a blending of contemplative listening and openness with personal prayer. This inner listening is practiced with another person, a companion, who helps us stay focused on our inner prayer journey. But even though it is practiced with a companion, our prayer experience is private; it is just between us and God.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.

Lectio Eucharist Bible Study

10 week study

Beginning April 17

Wednesday, 9 am, Garden Room

Wednesday, 7pm, Marian Room

Thursday, 7pm, via Zoom

Contact: Angela Reed

916-342-3368, recatechists60@gmail.com

Why does the Church teach that the Holy Eucharist is the “source and summit” of our faith? Why does she insist that the Holy Eucharist is the “True Presence” of Jesus Christ? Do you believe?

If you do, can you explain to someone all the reasons behind this belief? If you don't believe, why not? In either case, it would enrich your faith to find out how God planned The Eucharist from the very beginning when Adam and Eve had to leave the Garden of Eden. Come dive into scripture with us and find out how God weaved this gift of love through our Salvation History so that everyone who believed can have food for their souls as they journey through life.

If you would like more information or if you would like to sign up for the study, please contact Angela.

Girls ages 13-17 will learn about Religious Orders, Consecrated Life, and Married Life. There will be time for prayer, fellowship, games, and more! Cost: $90. If you have any questions, please contact the Office of Vocations.

Live the Liturgy

Inspiration For the Week

Jesus the Good Shepherd knows that real love is an action, not an idea. His sacrifice is the proof of his love for his flock. Let us remember to love one another as the Good Shepherd loves us: not just in words but in actions, in choices, in deeds.

We invite our parish families to participate in the Vocations Cross Program.

It is our hope to support the Church in her effort to pray for priests and for an increase in priestly and religious vocations.

- Each weekend a family/individual will have the opportunity to praying for vocations.
- Take the Cross (kit) into your home and commit to saying the prayers provided on a daily basis.
- Return the complete kit the following weekend and it will be passed to a different family.

The Knights of Columbus will be coordinating this ministry. If you would like to take the Cross home, please seek out the Brother Knight for the Mass you are attending.

For more information on Vocations visit: <https://www.scd.org/vocations>

Pilgrimage Tour

Includes: Dublin, Glendalough, Kilkenny, Cashel, Cobh, Blarney, Killarney, Ring of Kerry, Cliffs of Moher, Galway, Westport, Knock, Belfast, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Liverpool, Oxford, London & more! Daily Mass at the Holy Sites. Travel brochures are available in the Parish Office and vestibule.

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we bring Christ's light to all
through service to others.

2nd Collection

Next weekend our second collection is for our Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Over 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered mission territories, because they are unable to fund essential pastoral activities needed in their communities. Your support of the Catholic Home Missions Appeal funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States.

The Divine Mercy Ministry continues to be grateful for the generous response received in the collection of food for the homeless. You are truly sharing God's love with others less fortunate with your contributions. The collection cart remains in the church vestibule for dropping off your donations. Items most requested:

- cup-of-soups, raisins, nuts
- peanut butter and cheese crackers
- hot chocolate packets, oatmeal packets
- bottled water, fruit juices
- nutritious granola bars, fruit cups
- jelly/jam
- ceramic cups

Fresh fruits are welcome and should be dropped off the day before, on Tuesday during church open hours. Bibles, holy cards, rosaries and religious reading materials are also appreciated. All donations will personally be handed out at Friendship Park with smiles of caring and encouragement.

Are you interested in driving or helping serve, call Greta or Catherine.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Good Shepherd and the Wolf

I remember very clearly the first movie I watched during my pregnancy with my eldest child. In this film, there is a scene where a young boy is kidnapped and shoved into the back of a van guarded by vicious dogs. His mother persists in trying to free him, even as the dogs snap at her. Their bared teeth and full-throated snarls don't slow her efforts in the slightest.

It wasn't a great movie or even a particularly great scene, but I'll never forget this scene. I'll never forget those dogs.

I had just learned that I was a mother a few days ago. The life growing deep within seemed to me as frail as a whispered secret, but I loved it powerfully. I worried constantly if the baby was safe and healthy. I agonized over signs — real or imagined — that could tell me if the poppyseed-sized child was thriving or failing.

I understood, for the first time in my life, why a woman would charge a pack of attack dogs without hesitation — not because she should, but because she has to.

She could choose not to fight, certainly. She could walk away. But why would she? A future without her son is so much more painful than any physical wound. She may fear for her life, but she fears a life without her child so much more.

The Good Shepherd discourse reveals to us the motivation behind God's actions throughout all of salvation history. From Adam to Noah to Abraham, all the way down to the time of the Messiah and beyond, He keeps trying to get us back. He keeps braving the attack dogs, time after time. He never stops. He never grows weary. And it baffles us: what's in it for Him? we wonder, because we are quicker to give up on ourselves than He is. Why does He keep trying?

He could choose not to fight, sure. But why would He? He doesn't want a future without us.

*"I will lay down my life for the sheep."
— John 10:11*

Jn 10:11-18

Without a good shepherd to lead them, sheep would get lost. Without a good shepherd to protect them, sheep would get hurt. A good shepherd would even die, just to keep his sheep safe. Jesus is your good shepherd, and you are his precious little lamb. When you get lost, Jesus comes to find you. When you are in danger, Jesus comes to comfort you. Listen to the voice of Jesus. Spend time reading the Bible every day. He wants to lead you to life with God. He wants to protect you from sin. Jesus gave up his life just to save you. Jesus is your good shepherd.

 Mission for the Week

Learn as much as you can about Jesus, so you can follow him. Read a Bible story with your family every night before bed.

 Puzzle

Help this lamb find his way into the sheep pen with Jesus.

 Prayer

God, help me to always follow Jesus, my good shepherd.

This mission is a series of talks by Vincentian Missioner Fr. Ron Hoye, C.M. It is a mini retreat in the evenings designed for busy people. It's an opportunity to step back, slow down and simply reconnect your life with God.

Fr. Hoye's 50 minute presentations are a blend of humor, story, sacrament and spiritual reflection that appeals to all ages. Save the dates & ignite your faith.
