Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Wis 18:6-9 / Ps 33:1, 12, 18-19, 20-22 [12b] / Heb 11:1-2, 8-19 or 11:1-2, 8-12 / Lk 12:32-48 or 12:35-40

"Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own."
(Ps 33)

Gospel Meditation

St. Thomas Aquinas reminds us that, "Three things are necessary for the salvation of man: to know what he ought to believe, to know what he ought to desire, and to know what he ought to do." Everyone is called to work toward their salvation, which is ultimately union with God. Those who take this call seriously must embark upon a journey inward to the deepest recesses of their soul. In the adventure and wonder of that journey, we work out the details of our union with our Beloved. We cling to what we need to believe, remain firm in what we truly desire, and are guided by what we know we have to do. Once we know that our goal is to be one with our Creator, life becomes an exciting expedition to pursue that end. We make necessary preparations, follow the map, and remain on course.

Whenever we really want something, we put our entire selves into achieving it. Being fully invested in our labor, we willingly work extra hours, devote an abundance of energy and effort, and remain vigilant for beneficial opportunities that may come our way.

We certainly do not passively sit by doing nothing! Such an attitude leads to laziness and the accomplishment of little. Worse yet, some look to others to do the work for them, hoping to reap the benefits of another's efforts. Conscientiousness and diligence are the only means to success.

For the one who eagerly awaits the day when they can be fully with God, life becomes a joyous adventure indeed! Alert, ready, focused, convicted, and willing to be a servant they constantly watch and prepare themselves for meeting the Lord. Loving the journey and being in love with their Creator, their lives become joyful witnesses of love and service. They are secure in their hope, confident in their faith, and perfect in their love. Never looking for recognition or gratitude, they stand as gentle inspirations of what the Holy Spirit can do in the hearts of those who believe. Because we do not know what tomorrow will bring, we stand ready to be used as God wills and run eagerly toward Him when He comes.

How much do we desire to experience the joy of salvation?

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Our wisdom writer speaks of the importance of trust in God's divine providence. How do you know that God has provided for you?

Second Reading

The author of Hebrews defines faith as "the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen." He then sites Abraham as the model of faith in terms of his obedience, trust, and courage. When have you had to completely trust in the Lord?

Gospel

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus teaches the disciples about being vigilant and faithful with the gifts God has given us as we await the end times and return of Jesus. How well do you think you are stewarding the gifts God has given you?

Missionary Cooperative Appeal Diocese of Alleppey

Please welcome this weekend Fr. George Sabi Alumparambil, from the Diocese of Alleppey-- the same diocese where Fr. Cleetus is from. Fr. George is visiting our parish to share the missionary context of the diocese.

The diocese of Alleppey is situated in the south west coast of India. Out of a total population of 1,260,971 in the area, Catholics who form the diocese amount to 165,900. We have 88 parishes and missions. Our personnel strength includes, 114 native diocesan priests, 350 religious sisters and over 1584 catechists serving the diocese in carrying out faith formation and family apostolate.

Very few of our people are well-to-do. A minority of the diocesan people, less than 20%, are employed in private and public sectors and have safe living conditions. Majority of its people however, 75% being fishermen, live on the meagre income from the daily catch. They are often afflicted with sea erosion, storms and severe monsoon which make fishing highly dangerous and many days they are forced to stay back from fishing. In the month of May 2021 our people were affected with tropical cyclone Tauktae and 50 houses were fully destroyed, 747 houses were partially damaged and 350 houses lost their sanitization facilities and about six schools were partially affected. The diocese joined the team of relief workers and opened up temporary shelters and camps in our educational institutions. The state could provide very minimal support for the people.

The diocese through various ministries reaches out to them with the assistance from generous people. Our supportive projects are oriented for rehabilitation of the affected people. We have identified 50 houses which requires complete reconstruction and six schools that lack fitness. Whatever financial support MCP 2022 will provide will be spent on supporting our mission in these areas.

The diocese of Alleppey is so grateful to you for giving Fr. George an opportunity to make this mission appeal to accompany him in the successful implementation of the relief projects.

Respect Life Ministry

Contact: Joanne Dudgeon
916-607-2228

Our peaceful and prayerful presence continues at Planned Parenthood, 201 29th & B Street, Sacramento on Tuesdays 8am-3pm, Wednesdays 8am-3pm and Thursdays 8am-1pm. A Carpool leaves St. Johns at 10:30am on Wednesdays for an 11:00am-1:00pm stay at the clinic.

Come pray with us if you can. Your presence can be life-saving. Numerous women have come to us many months after they changed their mind from getting the abortion to say that because we were there praying, it was the sign from God to drive away. He works miracles at the sidewalk in many ways including through us as compassionate Christians reaching out to women who have had abortions in the past or seeking one now. His forgiveness is infinite... Jesus, we trust in You, as we unite together, peacefully praying that someday abortion will be unthinkable.

Call Joanne for carpool information.

Do you not know that your body is a temple of the holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own?

For you have been purchased at a price.

Therefore, glorify God in your body.

Renewed BY PRAYER

*Eternal, Holy God,
I come to you burdened with worries, fears,
doubts, and troubles.*

*Calm and quiet me with peace of mind.
Empty me of the anxiety that disturbs me,
of the concerns that weigh heavy on my heart.*

*Loosen my grip on the disappointments and grievances I hold on to so tightly.
Release me from the pain of past hurts,
of present anger and tension, of future fears.*

Sometimes it's too much for me, Lord – too many demands and problems – too much sadness, suffering, and stress.

*Renew me spiritually and emotionally.
Give me new strength, hope, and confidence.
Prepare me to meet the constant struggles of daily life with a deeper faith and trust in you.*

*Let your love set me free...
For peace, for joy, for grace, for life,
for others...Forever. Amen

Caught in the Rising Action

Think of some of your favorite iconic movies. I'm not talking about the feel-good comedies or the offbeat coming-of-age flicks. I'm talking about the movies that you found had a profound impact on you or made you go "Hmmm."

I'm willing to bet that the plot of this film features some tough moments and difficult scenarios. However happy the ending, at some point, the situation for the protagonist might look awfully hopeless. The script speaks some truth to you about what it is to be human in difficult circumstances. What it means to persevere.

We're attracted to the tension that exists when the hero is besieged. We're captivated by the decisions he makes in the darkest hour of the night when it seems like the dawn will never come. Why? Because we know that feeling so well. This is the essence of our human life on earth: waiting, hoping, doubting — and enduring.

We know the ending to our story, but we don't know when it's coming. We live our whole lives in the rising action of the narrative. Sure, it gets old. Tiresome, even dull. We may start to despair that the climactic scene is coming at all.

But faith is the realization of things hoped for, and evidence of things not seen. We feel it watching a great movie, because we recognize it intuitively: it is faith which earns the happy ending. No one is drawn to the story when the hero gives up or gets tired of waiting for the payoff. Everyday stewardship is the collection of choices we make while we're waiting, because we are called to action, not idleness, even in our perpetual state of expectation.

Inspiration of the Week

The fruits of our labors are not always seen in our lifetimes. Faith is not conditional on seeing results. Faith is a radical trust in what is unseen. It requires vigilance and self-investment. It requires our attention even when our efforts don't bear fruit or are unappreciated or unrecognized. A person who is open to accepting God's presence, however it comes, and is willing to share the love received with others is a true inspiration. Good works will flow from this vigilant depth of faith. It will be directed where it is most needed and detached from the need for recognition or gratitude. Faith exercised in secret is the most profound expression of faith and a testament of true love for our Creator. No one needs to know the humility, generosity, and goodness of our hearts, only God. Standing erect and watchful, we are prepared to receive the gift of Divine Love and freely share it with others, without recognition or self-benefit.

Saint Jane Frances de Chantal was born to a noble family in Dijon, France, on January 28, 1572. Her mother died when she was an infant. Her father raised her and provided for her education. In 1592 she married the Baron de Chantal, the couple were devoted to each other. They had six children, three of whom died in infancy. As Baroness, Saint Jane Frances restored the custom of daily Mass, and was famous for her charitable works. Unfortunately, her husband died in a hunting accident only eight years after their marriage. Devastated Jane Frances was forced to live in her father-in-law's strict household where she took a vow of chastity. In 1604 while visiting her father in Dijon, she met Saint Francis de Sales and he became her close friend and spiritual director. Although not many of their epistles have survived, the pair had a lively correspondence which lasted until Saint Francis died. Under the direction of St. Francis de Sales and with his partnership she established the Congregation of the Visitation at Annecy in 1610. This was a unique order, without the extreme ascetical practices typical in other religious orders, accepting women and girls and those rejected by other orders because of poor health or age. The new order was also unusual in its public ministry, rather than a strictly cloistered life. Saint Jane transformed her convent at Annecy into a hospital during the plague of 1628. The saint died at the Visitation Convent in Moulins on December 13, 1641. At the time of her death, there were 86 convents of Visitation nuns. She was canonized in 1767 by Pope Clement XIII.

Lighter Side

One-Liners

An elderly woman was mailing an old family Bible to her brother in another part of the country. When she put the heavy package on the counter, the postal clerk asked, "Is there anything breakable in here?" "Just the Ten Commandments," the lady replied.

When Napoleon claimed that he would destroy the Church, Pope Pius VII is said to have responded, "Oh, you silly little man. You're trying to do what seventeen centuries of priests and bishops have tried and failed to do!"

Pope John XXIII, when asked how many people work at the Vatican, replied, "About half of them."

Matter of Perspective

Three priests sat discussing the best positions for prayer while a telephone repairman worked nearby.

"Kneeling is definitely best," claimed one.

"No," another contended. "I get the best results standing with my hands outstretched to Heaven."

"You're both wrong," the third insisted. "The most effective prayer position is lying prostrate, face down on the floor."

The repairman could contain himself no longer. "Hey, fellas," he interrupted, "the best prayin' I ever did was hangin' upside down from a telephone pole."
