Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Is 55:6-9 / Ps 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18 [18a] / Phil 1:20c-24, 27a / Mt 20:1-16a

"You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just."

(Mt 20:4)

Gospel Meditation

If I work for five hours, I expect to get paid for five hours. If I work for two, I expect to get paid for two. What if we worked for a company that paid everyone the same amount regardless of how long they worked? How would we feel going home with the same pay for working eight hours as my co-worker did for working only two hours? Secular wisdom would have a huge problem with this and a visit to the Labor Board would quickly pursue. But this is God's wisdom and God's ways.

We sometimes think that if we pray more, better, or more fervently and go over and above with the practice of our faith, God will somehow reward us and present us with some kind of merit badge. We are so wrong. Spiritual practices have only one true purpose: to deepen our love for God. In deepening our love for God, we also increase our ability to see God's presence around us, living life more purposefully and contemplatively. What if God chooses to treat someone who has come on the scene of faith later in life the same as someone who has devoted their whole lives to it? Does it really matter? If we have the merit badge notion of faith, we can find ourselves feeling a little arrogant and even jealous of folks who have not followed the same path that we have. We can even see ourselves as the privileged few who have a corner on the faith and fully possess it.

That thinking doesn't square with God. God is all about mercy in abundance and is ready to take anyone to himself regardless of when they come. He is only happy that they have come home and delights in their return. After all, if you really and truly love someone, does it matter what they will give you in return or what you receive as a benefit? If relationships were assessed based upon productivity, they would lack authentic love. We invest too much self interest in our prayer and neglect to see it as an opportunity to pursue our Lover and deepen the intimate bond we have with God.

When we breathe our last, all that is of consequence is union with God. If my love for God is real, I am going to want to live the Gospel, abide by the commandments, practice my faith, forgive and love my neighbor, and care for the environment, regardless of how much time it takes or benefits me. We want God to think and behave as we do, and in doing so, we set ourselves up for disappointment. God has a totally different agenda and that's okay.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

While still in captivity in Babylon, Isaiah urged the Israelites to seek the Lord, for the Lord is near even in exile. When have you felt the Lord's presence in dark periods of your life?

Second Reading

In his letter to the Philippians written from prison and toward the end of his life, Paul reflects on his spiritual dilemma between life and death. How do you work through spiritual dilemmas?

Gospel Reading

Jesus' parable of the workers in the vineyard of the Lord offers us important insights into the Kingdom of Heaven and God's generosity. To whom do you think this parable is unsettling?

Reminder Mass Schedule Change

Evening Masses now start at 6pm.
Please remember: Bring your own chair, a mask is required and must be worn at all times and sign in for contact tracing purposes.

The Gospel of Matthew

An Online 15-Segment Zoom Series

Presented by Deacon Jim McFadden

September 29, Tuesday, 7 pm

Contact: Theresa Grant

tgrant203@aol.com

Session 4: Preparing the Ministry—John the Baptist, Baptism, Temptation

Our earlier sessions showed how Matthew was preparing his audience for the question, Who is Jesus? Now, Matthew skips ahead to an adult Jesus who is going to be baptized by his cousin John the Baptist at the river Jordan. Jesus is being prepared for his public ministry, which Matthew describes in three stages:

- The ministry of John, who prepares the way for the Messiah;
- He recounts the circumstances of Jesus’ baptism;
- He reflects on Jesus’ temptations in the wilderness before he begins his ministry proper.

To register for the series, please email Theresa Grant. You will receive an email prior to the scheduled session with the Zoom online link & instructions. Please check your spam/junk mail in case you do not receive the email in your inbox.

Inspiration for the Week

Think for a moment about the most special person in your life. Why do you love them? Many people will answer that question noting character traits they admire about the person, pointing to an indescribable compatibility that exists and describing a deep sense of connection and intimacy or even a sense of rightness about the relationship. In relationships that are authentic and true, rarely are the personal benefits gained from the relationship noted as motivating factors for its pursuit. If we truly love someone we do so simply because it is right and good to do so and not for some other self-serving reason. Why do you love God? The sense of happiness and the gift of mercy that come from that relationship are God’s to give, regardless of when in life we come to Him. God’s ways are different than ours.

In order for abortion to be acceptable, Americans have to completely DEHUMANIZE the unborn baby, just as was done in the days of slavery. Whether we participate in abortion or are simply a member of a culture that normalizes the behavior, it is shaping us. We CAN undo that from here on out. And we MUST be a part of the nationwide movement against this culture of evil in one way or another. Come out by participating in prayer at the sidewalk in front of the clinic, you will be speaking up for the blessings that babies are in this life. God bless you!

How Meditation on the Present Moment Can Relieve Anxiety

If you are anxious about the uncertain future, try meditating on the present moment and let God take care of the rest.

Philip Kosloski | Aletia.org

It's relatively easy to become anxious about the future. We simply do not know what will happen next and that can be a frightening thought.

However, the good news is that God is in control of the future, and the more we surrender ourselves to God, the more our anxiety will disappear.

One way to do this is by focusing on the present moment, using meditation as a tool to bring our heart and mind into the "now." Jesus urged his disciples to do exactly that, and we should use his words in our meditation.

So do not worry and say, 'What are we to eat?' or 'What are we to drink?' or 'What are we to wear?' All these things the pagans seek. Your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom [of God] and his righteousness, and all these things will be given you besides. Do not worry about tomorrow; tomorrow will take care of itself. Sufficient for a day is its own evil. (Matthew 6:31-33)

Stay with this Scripture passage for several minutes and chew on those words of Jesus. What is Jesus trying to speak to you at this moment? What worries are on your heart?

Archbishop Fulton Sheen is quoted in From the Angel's Blackboard about living in the present moment, and how it can truly ease our anxieties.

All unhappiness (when there is no immediate cause for sorrow) comes from excessive concentration on the past or from extreme preoccupation with the future ... The second remedy for the ills that come to us from thinking about time is what might be called the sanctification of the moment — or the Now ... We are to leave the past to divine mercy and to trust the future, whatever its trials, to God's loving providence. Each minute of life has its peculiar duty — regardless of the appearance that minute may take. The Now-moment is the moment of salvation. Each complaint against it is a defeat; each act of resignation to it is a victory.

If you want to get rid of excessive anxiety in your life, meditate frequently on the present moment and leave the rest to God.

September 24 - September 26

ministrydays.com

Our theme this year calls us to Rejoice and Be Glad because God never abandons His people. While the need to equip families spiritually and connect them to a church is felt stronger in time of struggle, we also need to remind all that they need God to survive and thrive. We are called to walk the journey together accompanying each other in our call to holiness. This event is for all Catholics, but especially for those who are active in Parish and School ministry. Registration for Ministry Days is now open and can be completed online through the Ministry Days website. Here you can find all information about the event including descriptions of the Keynotes, and workshops as well as the schedule for the event and where you will find the links to join the workshop session during Ministry Days.

2nd Collection

This weekend our 2nd Collection is for the Diocesan Collection for Priests Retirement. This is our opportunity to take care of the faithful and dedicated priests who have spent their lives caring for our spiritual and sacramental needs within our Diocese. Thank you for your support of our parish priests.

Last weekend our 2nd collection was for our Building & Maintenance Fund. Together we collected $11,039.00. The weekend of September 6, our second collection was for our RE Program and SJND. Our total contribution was $195.

Next weekend our 2nd collection will be for the Pontifical Good Friday Collection which had be postponed. Pope Francis has asked that we support this collection which helps Christians in the Holy Land.

Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS! For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

Food Collection Loaves & Fishes

Please consider sharing food again with the homeless at Friendship Park. The Divine Mercy Ministry thanks you for all of your past donations and will appreciate your sharing once again. Most requested are cup-of-soups, peanut butter and cheese crackers, drink boxes and bottled water, oatmeal packets, breakfast and nutri- bars, raisins and fruit cups. Peanut butter and jelly jars also appreciated for volunteers making sandwiches. The large designated cart is in the vestibule during open hours of the church for collecting donations. All will be taken down to share Wednesday, September 23. Thank you for ongoing donations of food for this Corporal Work of Mercy.

Be Sure to Look the Part

I used to coach my oldest son in soccer when he was younger. As he got older, he would go to tryouts for select and high school teams. I was no longer the coach, but I always shared with him one piece of advice before any tryout: Be sure to look the part. I told him that if he showed up looking like a soccer player, there was an increased chance of him being seen as a soccer player. If he showed up looking like a kid that plays soccer in video games as opposed to the real thing, he might not be taken seriously. As he grew older, that same advice was then applied to getting a job. It's advice I have heeded myself all my life. You can even say it is like another common phrase: "Fake it till you make it."

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we certainly do not want to fake it, but we do need to look the part. The world looks at those of us who proclaim to be Christians to see if there is anything to this way of life. If they see us looking and acting like people transformed by Jesus Christ, they will be more likely to take Christianity seriously. If they look at us and see nothing different, then they can easily conclude that there is nothing different about Jesus Christ. He just becomes simply another religious figure of history. Can the world see the power of Christ in you? How will do you look the part?

CATECHETICAL Sunday

Prayer for Catechists

God of our fathers and mothers,
today we mark Catechetical Sunday,
the day we recommit ourselves
to teaching and forming disciples to continue your work in this world.

In the beginning, you created man to please you and offer you companionship.
We turned away from you without knowing the great love you had for us. Help us to recapture that understanding of your love for us and for creation.

Give us wisdom to hand on to the next generation that love you freely give us.

We ask all that is good to come upon our catechetical leaders and the people whom they lead to the faith.

We ask all this in the name
of the primary teacher of the faith,
Jesus the Christ.
Amen.

Celebrated on the Third Sunday of September

The word "catechesis" means "to echo." Literally, we are to echo the good news of Jesus Christ to the world. This is not a suggestion; it is a command of our Lord. Some people are called and set apart in our communities as catechists, those formally trained and charged with passing on the Gospel to children and adults, inside and outside of our communities. On Catechetical Sunday, we acknowledge them and remind ourselves of the need for formation and growth in all of us. To be a catechist is a privileged calling, and today be sure to say "thank you" to one in your community.

However, it would be wrong on this day to only look to those bearing the NAME of catechist for an echoing of good news. ALL of us are called to echo and share the Gospel message. Parents are the first and primary catechists in a child's life. But we also are important catechists in the lives of our coworkers, our spouses, our relatives, and our friends. Some say catechesis begins in the home, and while that is true, it carries with it a parent/child connotation. But where does catechesis really begin? It begins in the HEART. This year on Catechetical Sunday, may your heart be moved to motivate you to share with others the good news of Jesus Christ.
