Today's Readings

1Jon 3:1-5, 10 / Ps 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9 (4a) / 1 Cor 7:29-31 / Mk 1:14-20

"Teach me your ways, O Lord."

Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

We start telling lies around the age of three, the experts tell us. It's understandable. Lying is a god-like power. Whatever I want, I need only say it, and the world rearranges itself accordingly. It's amazing at first. But soon reality snaps back and I'm faced with a dilemma. If I remain committed to my lie I start to fracture into pieces. My words and reality drift apart, and I find myself lost in a lonely world of further falsehoods and fear of being found out.

How marvelous, then, that Jesus begins his ministry by proclaiming: "Repent!"

We tend to think it means "stop doing bad things" but it doesn't. It literally means "go beyond the mind you have." Think in a new way. It's painful to admit, but some portion of my mind is addicted to lie-telling, usually to protect my ego or make life easier.

To repent means to admit this tendency, to say, "I'm done lying," and to move beyond my split mind into a complete commitment to the truth. Perhaps that's why at Mass we together proclaim, "I have sinned in my thoughts, and in my words..."

Repentance and truth-telling work together.

Those who know the twelve-step process of addiction recovery know this process well.

The fourth step requires radical truth-telling: listing our moral defects. This isn't being scrupulous. Rather it is freedom from falsehood, and entrance into the real world.

This week, I invite you to join me in this practice. Get your phone or piece of paper.

Answer the question: what are your true moral defects? Write them down. Remember, the Lord knows them already and loves you. We have a sacrament where this truth-telling is celebrated: Confession. Perhaps it is finally time to go beyond our childish lies.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

The people of Nineveh (the capital city of the Assyrian Empire and historic enemy of Israel) repented of their sins when they heard Jonah's warning of God's impending destruction of their city. What motivates you to repent?

Second Reading

Paul encouraged the believers in Corinth to live with a sense of urgency and in a radically different way than before coming to faith in Jesus. In what way are you living counter-culturally as a person of faith?

Gospel

This Sunday we hear the first words of Jesus in Mark's account of the call of the first disciples: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel." Jesus taught that the time had come for God to come and reclaim His world.

What excites you about this message?

Knights of Columbus

We're looking for a "few good catholic men"
Contact: Percy Park
916-936-6145, dbk576@aol.com

In 1882, Father Michael J. McGivney gathered a small group of parishioners in St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Conn. His purpose was to establish a group of men, united in their faith and to provide for Catholic families in times of need. This was the beginning of the Knights of Columbus. Guided by the principles of charity, unity, and fraternity members of the Knights of Columbus work to overcome the hardships that people face in their parishes and communities. We are a growing organization - more than 1.9 million members - committed to overcome the challenges of the need for food, shelter, warm clothing and financial security, as well as provide aid for widows and orphans in our local communities. As a Knight, you have the opportunity to strengthen your parish, give back to your community, grow in your faith and gain exclusive access to our portfolio of top-quality insurance products to financially protect your family. Membership is open to men 18 years of age or older who are practical (that is, practicing) Catholics in union with the Holy See. Please contact Percy if you have any questions or meet to fill out the Application Form 100 (available in the vestibule) to join the Knights.

We offer alternatives to abortion because every child is a precious blessing from God. And all life needs to be protect. You can bring a folding chair or ask for one to be provided, join our carpool and pray for dads, moms, and babies. Meeting time at St John's is at 9:30am Thursdays from 10am-noon. We bring Christ's love and hope to women making a "choice" that will sadly change their lives forever. Contact Joanne.

Annual Pro-Life Mass of Reparation

January 22, Monday, 12:10 pm
Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament

Bishop Jaime Soto will celebrate this Mass at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament in downtown Sacramento. Join in this Mass to pray in reparation for the innocent victims of abortion and for the mothers of unborn children. January 22, 2024 marks the anniversary of the lamentable 1973 U.S. Supreme Court decision, Roe v. Wade. While Roe was overturned in 2022, we recognize the tragedy of legalized abortion that still grips the state of California. In the Diocese of Sacramento, Jan. 22 is designated as a Diocesan Day of Reparation. All are asked to participate through fasting, prayer, penance and works of mercy.

Vocations Cross

"The harvest is rich, but there are few laborers to gather it in. Beg the Lord of the Harvest to send laborers into the harvest." -Matthew 9:37-38

Beginning this Lent we will be inviting our parish families to participate in the Vocations Cross Program. It is our hope to support the Church in her effort to pray for priests and for an increase in priestly and religious vocations. Each weekend a family will have the opportunity to embrace praying for vocations at home together. For one week the individual or family takes the Cross into their home and commits to saying the prayers provided on a daily basis. This may also be a good time to reflect together upon God's call of service to His Church. The kit is then returned the following weekend and will be passed on to a different family. We hope this will encourage all of us to pray for the gift of vocations. Please watch for more details in the coming bulletins.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

A Good Time for Fulfillment

There are some things that always come at the worst time. I've never gotten a telemarketing call and thought, "This is a really convenient moment for me to listen to a sales pitch." I've never seen the compulsory software update notice flash on my computer screen when I didn't have a deadline I was struggling to meet. My kids never come down with the flu unless it's the weekend and the line at Urgent Care is stretching out the door. And I never, ever feel the calm, persistent shoulder-tap of the Holy Spirit without thinking, "Now? Now is not a good time. Can you try again when I'm..." But then I stop and think: when I am what? When I am stronger? When I am happier? When I am smarter? When I am a different person?

When God calls us, He calls the person He sees in front of Him. "Come on," He says, and He doesn't mean "When you're finished" or "When it's convenient" or "Think about it." He means now. This moment. This is what Paul is saying when he writes that "the world in its present form is passing away." He is saying that your plans mean nothing, the kingdom of God is at hand. Abandon your nets, let your catch escape into the sea. You're not who you thought you were, and you don't need what you thought you needed.

Your sins do not define you. Your fears are not fate. Your inclinations do not govern you. Your life can be changed. We live in the time of fulfillment, and fulfillment is coming for you — ready or not.

"Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: 'This is the time of fulfillment.'"

— Mark 1:14

 Read the Gospel and Color

Mk 1:14-20

There's a colorful envelope addressed to you on the kitchen table. You see it's from your friend. You open it and find a party invitation inside. You parents say you can go! When Jesus invited Peter, Andrew, James and John to come along with him, they were just as excited to go. Jesus was the Savior and a good friend. They couldn't wait!

 Mission for the Week

Jesus wants you to come to his home in heaven. Make a party invitation from Jesus to you. Use this invitation as a bookmark in your Bible.
