Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Is 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7 / Ps 80:2-3, 15-16, 18-19 [4] / 1 Cor 1:3-9 / Mk 13:33-37

"Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved "
(Ps 80)

Gospel Meditation

You are at the eye doctor and it's time for the peripheral vision test. You know the one. It's where you put your head up to a contraption and have to click a switch every time you see a squiggly line. If you don't concentrate and maintain optimal focus, you will miss them and skew the outcome of the test. You can easily find yourself with a diagnosis that really isn't accurate! Concentration and focus are key to succeeding with this evaluation. They are also key to developing a healthy, vibrant spiritual life. If we do not bring our full consciousness to the task, concentrate with all our might, be watchful and vigilant, we are not going to see God's loving presence flashing before our eyes!

That's why we need Advent. Let's face it. We can easily get distracted, focus on nonessential and superficial things and lose touch with what really matters. Our attentions wander. We daydream and even become a bit overwhelmed and tired. All of the stresses and demands of life consume us and we find ourselves constantly trying to play catch up rather than relishing the moment of the now. "Now" moments are so fleeting. They flash before us like those squiggly lines on a screen. Present moments go as quickly as they come but it is important to discover them and rest in them as often as we can. Though gone in a flash, these now moments of encounter with God teach powerful lessons and offer a grounding in truth that can be found nowhere else. It's the grace of Advent to become watchful and attentive because we are never sure when God will surprise us.

God loves surprises and love thrives on them! God's now moments of surprises come as tender instants of intimate connection where I find profound peace, experience joy, and rest in love. These are Advent times reflective of the now moments when Christ first was born, when God surprises us during every time we care to watch and when the great surprise of Christ's second coming dawns upon us all. But, to discover the grandeur and experience the awe of these now times, we have to be ready. We have to want to be there. We have to believe. And, we have to have the desire to soak in as much as we can in the time we have before us.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

We hear today the prophet Isaiah's internal spiritual struggle as he questions God's ways and decries our human tendency to sin. What spiritual struggles do you need to confront as we enter into the season of Advent ?

Second Reading

In his opening words to the Corinthian Christians, Paul reminds the faithful of God's fidelity to those who believe in his Son. He then cites examples of the blessings they have received since coming to the faith. What are some blessings you have received in your faith journey ?

Gospel

Jesus instructs his disciples to be vigilant for the end times. How can you make this spiritual discipline a focus of your Advent season this year ?

EXTREME MAKEOVER SJND EDITION

St. John Notre Dame School takes tremendous pride in the quality of the Catholic education provided for our children. We are blessed to be a part of a fantastic community which includes a committed leadership team, wonderful teachers, and generous parents and parishioners. St. John Notre Dame has been recognized as the top private school in the area for 8 years in a row.

As you know, tuition does not cover the cost of this high quality education. The "Week of Giving," previously known as the "Annual Fund," helps bridge the gap. In the past, the Annual Fund provided updated security fencing, stronger classroom locks, security cameras, paid for new Chromebooks, and new, updated HVAC systems, to name a few key projects.

This year's theme for "Week of Giving" is Extreme Makeover – SJND Edition. With the proceeds we will give our classrooms extreme makeovers which will include new paint, carpets, furniture, etc.

Your support and donations directly impacts our students' security and educational growth. Please make a donation today at <http://sjnds.org/weekofgiving>. Our goal this year is to raise $40,000. Remember, all contributions are tax deductible. You may also send in a personal check to SJND (Week of Giving), 309 Montrose Drive.

10:00am & 11:30am (Sun)

Daily Masses are cancelled

Christmas Mass Sign-ups

Sign-ups for Mass coordinators, EMs and lectors for Christmas Masses will be in the sacristy.

2021 Mass Intentions

Scheduled Mass Intentions are being accepted for the first quarter of the new year. Since the Parish Office remains closed, please mail in or call the office with the intention and a possible date and time you would like to reserve. If the particular Mass is not available we will reserve the next open opportunity. There is a limit of 5 intentions per family.

Donations can be made online or mailed to the Parish Office. Please include "Mass Intention for" and the prayer intention noted in the memo section of the check or in the comments on the online giving form.

Check Our Parish Website For Updates folsomcatholic.org

Please check our website for updates regarding the COVID-19 status here in our parish. Bulletins are also posted. Just click on the word "Bulletin" located near the top of our Home page. A limited number of printed copies are also available in the vestibule.

Inspiration for the Week

Be watchful! Be alert! The core message of Advent cannot be more direct or simple. As those who are postured in a spirit of readiness and anticipation, we must always be attentive and vigilant. We have to be ready not only for the anticipated arrival of our Lord, but watchful and attentive to the unexpected visit as well. While we know that the Christ is coming, we also do not know the exact time. Cultivating this expectant attitude is the purpose of this season. It is easy to grow slack, inattentive, and too self-assured. We can easily deaden ourselves to the wonder and surprise of God's presence. We get so absorbed in so many other distractions that it can seem like Christ's second coming, and even Christ's coming in time are of lesser importance. When it finally dawns on us that we have wandered far away from where we need to be, and lost our attentiveness and focus, we will wonder how this all happened. We may even try to put the onus on God and blame God for a lack of involvement or presence. We are the ones, who through our own choice, put the distance in our relationship and lost touch. Now it's time to come back and perk ourselves up a bit!

O God,

You raised up St. John the Baptist to prepare a perfect people for Christ.

Fill Your people with the joy of possessing His grace, and direct the minds of all the faithful in the way of peace and salvation.

Grant that as St. John was martyred for truth and justice, so we may energetically profess our Faith in You, and lead others to the Way, the Truth, and Eternal Life.
Amen.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, time in conversation with our Lord is at the center of our lives.

Covid-19: A Prayer of Solidarity

*For all who have contracted coronavirus,
We pray for care and healing.*

*For those who are particularly vulnerable,
We pray for safety and protection.*

*For all who experience fear or anxiety,
We pray for peace of mind and spirit.*

*For affected families who are facing difficult decisions between food on the table or public safety,
We pray for policies that recognize their plight.*

*For those who do not have adequate health insurance,
We pray that no family will face financial burdens alone.*

*For those who are afraid to access care due to immigration status,
We pray for recognition of the God-given dignity of all.*

*For our brothers and sisters around the world,
We pray for shared solidarity.*

*For public officials and decision makers,
We pray for wisdom and guidance.*

Father, during this time may your Church be a sign of hope, comfort and love to all.

*Grant peace.
Grant comfort.
Grant healing.
Be with us, Lord.*

Amen.

In the Unexpected

“What could happen next?” How many times have you asked yourself that question in the past year? Though we most often use that expression when things don’t seem to be going our way, this year it has been an expression of the constant changes to our world which the COVID-19 pandemic has wrought. But we might use the same expression to explain our feelings of being overwhelmed by blessings and good things, when the stars seem to align just right.

No matter what, we can say with certainty that tomorrow will not go exactly as we envisioned. Our lives are influenced by so many factors and the world around us is increasingly complex. Rather than be surprised by the unexpected, maybe we should expect the unexpected.

Living in this manner causes us to cherish more deeply the gifts we have been given. It helps us to live in the present and become mindful of those around us. Our relationships deepen. Our sense of responsibility builds. Our stewardship way of life finds new meaning and purpose.

This Advent will not be the same experience as last Advent. It remains to be seen what the coming days and weeks have in store for each of us. However, no matter what happens, Jesus Christ is there to welcome us to the unexpected. He will celebrate with us in joy and he will even feel our pain. You can count on the unexpected, but you can also count on Him to be there with you. He is now and forever, Emmanuel, “God with us.” He is the expected in all things unexpected.

Prepare the Way of the Lord

The theme of preparing a highway for the Lord emerges from the time of exile. When the Babylonian Captivity was coming to a close, the prophet Isaiah envisioned God making a highway in the desert to facilitate the return of his people to Jerusalem. From what captivity is God leading us this Advent?

Advent is our season when we prepare for the arrival of Jesus! Faith practices are essential for Family Catholic Identity. Make memories and traditions that will last a lifetime and for the faith of your family.

At St. John the Baptist Parish, we bring Christ's light to all through service to others.

2nd Collection

Our second collection on November 21/22 was to support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in six people lives in poverty. With this collection, you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

Next weekend our second collection will be for the RE Program and SJND.

Do You Have Any Christmas Themed Unused Greeting Cards Available?

The Christmas and holiday seasons are especially difficult times for people who are incarcerated. Chaplain Greg Mellor invites you to contribute to this year's New Folsom Prison Christmas Card Drive. With the help of donors, over 5,000 Christmas cards will be distributed so that each inmate will have two cards to send to family and friends. Unused Christmas cards can be placed in the box in the vestibule from now through December 31.

PATRON SAINT OF MISSIONARIES
SAINT FRANCIS XAVIER

This week is the feast of St. Francis Xavier. As a young man, Xavier met Ignatius of Loyola at the University of Paris. Xavier was inspired by his friend's zeal and devotion. When Xavier was 31, he became one of the first members of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits). The order presented themselves to the Pope for service as missionaries. Xavier would spend the rest of his life traveling the world and spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ. He served side by side with the poor in India, modern-day Malaysia, Pacific Islands, and ultimately Japan. Rather than imposing on the people, Xavier wore local dress and arranged translations of religious texts into the local language. It's estimated that he baptized 30,000 people. His charismatic joy is an inspiration for all who want to bring people to Christ.

St. Vincent de Paul Update & Thank You

This is an overdue update on the status of our food pantry and clothes closet. Due to the COVID-19, we remain closed. We check our phone messages and respond as needed. The majority of calls are from those who have donations i.e. food, clothing, household items, etc. The remaining messages are for food, cards and financial assistance (rent). Fortunately, the majority of our families are receiving food from Twin Lakes Food Bank. We are not planning our annual turkey giveaway, and it is reassuring to know that the food bank is planning to accommodate our community. However, if a family is in need of a turkey dinner, we will be sure to provide one. We have not made a final decision about Christmas and our Giving Tree, but expect to have some information very soon.

Finally, we want to express our sincere gratitude. Your continued financial support makes it possible for us to assist our families with rent and utilities, as well as to stock our food pantry. It takes all of us (you and our volunteers) to continue to provide for those in need in our community. And we look forward to the day when we can reopen and serve. God bless you and your families.

Sharing the Gospel

When you play on a baseball team, you learn how to pay attention. Your coach reminds you and your teammates to stay ready. You learn to watch the ball. Those are good lessons to learn, because Jesus wants you to pay attention, too. Keep your eyes and your mind on Jesus, so you're ready when he comes.

Mission for the Week

Play a quick game of baseball. Cheer for one another. End the game with a prayer that you will keep your eyes on Jesus.

Prayer

Jesus, help me to stay ready for you.

When We Say the Penitential Act at Mass, Why Do We Strike Our Chest Three Times?

Our rituals and liturgical celebrations are filled with a variety of symbols, some of which also relate to our gestures and physical postures (e.g. kneeling, sitting, processing, making the Sign of the Cross). The custom of striking our breast three times during the “I Confess” of the Penitential Act of the Mass is one of those gestures that is loaded with symbolism.

The tradition of Christian’s striking the breast (above the heart) is rooted in the image of Sacred Scripture, especially texts like Psalm 51 which speak of a “humbled contrite heart” or how God heals broken hearts, binding up our wounds (see Psalm 147:3). Early Christian writers like Saint Augustine of Hippo and Saint Jerome also refer to this custom in their writings.

Ultimately, this practice is an expression of our sorrow for those times when we have been guilty of faults and a sign that we are willing to take responsibility for our sins and failings. That we all perform this gesture together is also an act of solidarity, recognizing that none of us, regardless of where we are on our journey of faith, is without fault and the need for grace and forgiveness.
