Gospel Meditation

By Father John Muir

John 11:1-45

A friend of mine wrote an imaginative reflection on the raising of Lazarus that caught me off guard. She proposed that when Jesus called Lazarus from the tomb, the man was not joyful but angry and annoyed. After so much suffering, maybe death felt like a release. He had finally escaped the pain. And then, suddenly, Jesus' voice cuts through the silence: "Lazarus, come out!" (John 11:43) The light stings his eyes. The pain returns. And now he is dragged back into a world that had broken him.

It startled me at first, but the more I sat with it, the more it made sense. Sometimes, people do not want to be raised. Not at first. Think of those in the grip of addiction, despair, or numbness. The tomb can feel safer than the risk of living again. Yet Jesus, moved by the grief and faith of others (Martha, Mary, the community) calls the dead man out. Lazarus obeys. But he is still bound, head to foot. Jesus says to the bystanders, "Untie him and let him go" (John 11:44).

That is often how healing happens: slowly, reluctantly. Not just by a personal decision, but through the love and persistence of others. Resurrection is not always euphoric. It may begin in protest and confusion and only later turn to gratitude and freedom. But Christ's voice breaks through, anyway.

Lenten challenge: Who in your life needs to be called back to life? Pray for them. If that person is you, listen for the voice. It is calling even now.

Questions of the Week

1st Reading

We hear from the prophet Ezekiel the Lord's promise to raise His people from the dead.
What gives you hope in this promise?

2nd Reading

Paul teaches that the Holy Spirit dwells in those who believe in Jesus and that same Spirit will raise our mortal bodies from the dead. How should this impact the way we live our lives today?

Gospel

Despite her grief over the death of Lazarus, Martha believes that Jesus is the resurrection and the life, the Son of God.
How has this season of Lent strengthened your faith in Jesus?

St. Vincent de Paul Fifth Sunday Collection

Dear Parish Family, once again I thank you on behalf of St. Vincent de Paul. Your support, and especially the donations of food through the Lenten Challenge, are greatly appreciated. The need for food and financial assistance (rent, utilities, and gas) has increased. It is with your support that we are able to keep families with a roof over their head and food on the table. Our homeless are also grateful that we are able to serve them food on an ongoing basis. We continue to pick up food and miscellaneous donations from Target, Safeway and Trader Joe's. We are hopeful that you will be able to support our ministry through next weekend's second collection on the Fifth Sunday. God bless you and your families.

Read the Gospel and Color

Jn 11:1-45

Instead of telling people he was the Savior, Jesus showed them. By raising Lazarus from the dead, Jesus sent a message loud and clear. Jesus was the Savior they had all been waiting for. He was filled with God's love and power, and many people believed in him.

Prayer

Thank you for showing me that you are my Savior, Jesus.
