Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Acts 6:1-7 / Ps 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19 [22] / 1 Pt 2:4-9 / Jn 14:1-12

"Thomas said to him, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life.*

No one comes to the Father except through me."

(Jn 14:5-6)

Gospel Meditation

When earthly lives end, especially when the person is younger, we tend to focus upon and consider what was lost. We think of lost opportunities — things they won't be able to see, babies they won't be able to cradle, and adventures that now must go undiscovered. Our minds create this chasm between earth and heaven that sees the losses of this life as permanent ones, never possible to achieve again. This perception causes many folks to remain stuck in their grief as they ponder all of the missed opportunities and regrets.

This is not resurrection thinking. All of the love that we can give and receive, the joy and elation that can be experienced, the adventures that can be undertaken, and the possibilities to be discovered are all part of a continuous journey. They are not ends in and of themselves but are all part of the unfolding of a relationship we have with God, who not only makes all of these wonderful things possible now but sustains them and fulfills them into eternity. The perception and experience of loss is really an illusion, because in God's eternal kingdom and in God's time, nothing is ever lost. Even the most intimate and tender of moments we can conceive of sharing with another human being are only part of a journey toward perfect intimate and tender moments to be shared with God in our resurrected life. We become like God and see God as He is in eternity.

What greater joy, love, and hope can ever be discovered as we walk down our often dimly lit paths in this world.

This is an awesome wonder and magnificent news to behold. Call to mind someone you have lost in death. How do you see them now? How do you see yourself in heaven? Remind yourself, again, that God is the Way, the Truth and the Life. Our happiness is not going to be fully realized in this world, and there is nothing we can find here that cannot be found one hundred fold in eternity. It's all about relationship, and not solely about the relationships we have with each other, ourselves, and the world in which we live. It's about our relationship with God. If we realize how special that one relationship really is, then there is only one particular of heaven and life eternal that really matters: namely, that we fall into love eternal and discover truth. For when we finally close our eyes in death, then all will be well as long as we are with God. There are no losses, only gains.

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

In today's reading, Luke offers an example of the cultural tensions that existed in the early Church between the Hellenists (Gentiles) and the Hebrews (Jews). The resolution resided in offering service to the other. Why do you think service can be a key to resolving community conflict?

Second Reading

Peter emphasizes the importance of faith in Christ for building a strong spiritual house. How has the gift of faith strengthened your home?

Gospel Reading

In his farewell discourse, Jesus encourages the disciples, "Whoever has seen me has seen the Father." What inspires you in times of spiritual doubt?

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we welcome all
as members of the Body of Christ.

Armed Forces Day May 16

Thank You to all who have given and served.

Armed Forces Day is celebrated on the third Saturday in May. Originally, there were single day celebrations for each branch of the military, the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force and Space Force; this format changed on August 21, 1949. Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson announced the creation of Armed Forces Day. Stemming from the unification of the Armed Forces under the Department of Defense, the annual celebration now commemorates all branches of the military during one solitary day. The first Armed Forces Day was celebrated on Saturday, May 20, 1950. Unlike Veterans Day, which honors those who served, and unlike Memorial Day, which honors those who died serving, Armed Forces Day is a day to honor all of the men and women currently serving as well as those who have served, both active and former military.

*Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace,
as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces.*

*Give them courage, hope and strength.
May they ever experience your firm support,
gentle love and compassionate healing.
Be their power and protector, leading them
from darkness to light.
To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.*

Blessing of Mothers May 10

During the season of Easter, what a great time to remember our mothers and ask for God's blessing on them. It is God who ultimately gave us life. It is through God's unselfish love--mirrored in our mothers' willingness to associate their love with God's and take the risk to love us into life--that we have the opportunity for life. We remember our mothers this Mother's Day with much love. Let us pray for each of them:

*God our heavenly Father,
you give to each the ability to share your generative love.*

Bless those women in our lives who mirror your love and bring forth life through their willingness to risk bringing new life into this world.

Help us to show them our gratitude for the gift of life and the gift of a mother's love.

May our life-giving God continue to bless them and show them his unfailing love.

*We ask this through Jesus,
God's Son and our brother.
Amen.*

Remember in Your Prayers All Those Affected by the Coronavirus throughout the World

Compassionate and Loving Father,

In the face of confusion and concern impart to us the calm of Your presence.

In You allow us to find hope and healing.

Be with those who serve the sick and give them Your caring hands.

Be with those who lead and give them
Your spirit of wisdom.

Be with those who have fallen ill and give them Your comforting heart.

Wrap Your arms around our world and hold us in Your Love.

Allow us at this time of trial to then serve as instruments of that love
to all we meet.

We ask this in Your Name.

Amen

Letter from Pope Francis to the Faithful for the Month of May 2020

(April 25, 2020)

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The month of May is approaching, a time when the People of God express with particular intensity their love and devotion for the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is traditional in this month to pray the Rosary at home within the family. The restrictions of the pandemic have made us come to appreciate all the more this “family” aspect, also from a spiritual point of view.

For this reason, I want to encourage everyone to rediscover the beauty of praying the Rosary at home in the month of May. This can be done either as a group or individually; you can decide according to your own situations, making the most of both opportunities. The key to doing this is always simplicity, and it is easy also on the internet to find good models of prayers to follow.

I am also providing two prayers to Our Lady that you can recite at the end of the Rosary, and that I myself will pray in the month of May, in spiritual union with all of you. I include them with this letter so that they are available to everyone. (Please note due to space only Prayer One is include below. Prayer Two can be found at the article source listed below)

Dear brothers and sisters, contemplating the face of Christ with the heart of Mary our Mother will make us even more united as a spiritual family and will help us overcome this time of trial. I keep all of you in my prayers, especially those suffering most greatly, and I ask you, please, to pray for me. I thank you, and with great affection I send you my blessing.

O Mary,

*You shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.
We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who, at the foot of the cross, were united with Jesus' suffering, and persevered in your faith.*

“Protectress of the Roman people”, you know our needs, and we know that you will provide, so that, as at Cana in Galilee, joy and celebration may return after this time of trial.

*Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the will of the Father and to do what Jesus tells us.
For he took upon himself our suffering, and burdened himself with our sorrows to bring us, through the cross, to the joy of the Resurrection.*

Amen.

*We fly to your protection,
O Holy Mother of God;
Do not despise our petitions
in our necessities,
but deliver us always
from every danger,
O Glorious and Blessed Virgin.*

At St. John the Baptist Parish,
we foster a commitment to lifelong spiritual growth.

Food Collection

Please help our community by donating canned and non-perishable goods to our food collection. Donations will be distributed locally. All who are able are encouraged to contribute what they can to this collection. Canned goods of all kinds (meats, veggies, fruits, soups, chili), boxed pastas, rice, and cereal will be appreciated.

Please do not endanger yourself by making extra trips to the stores to secure your donations. Just add a few extra items to your cart when you normally shop and then drop off the items. A barrel or cart will be in the vestibule during open hours of the church for collecting your donations.

Do You Have Any Unused Spring/Mother's Day Themed Greeting Cards Available?

The Prison Ministry is currently looking for Mother's Day cards or blank cards that the prisoners at CSP-SAC can send to a family member and/or loved one. The inmates expressed that this will be especially valuable and would appreciate having a card to send out since no visiting, no volunteers and very little movement of any kind is being allowed. A box will be placed in the vestibule to collect these cards. Please save your cards as collections will be held through out the year.

Inspiration of the Week

What do you imagine the resurrected life of heaven to be like? When we try to get our minds around such an enormous concept, we can easily find ourselves at a loss. For some folks, the enormity of the question actually causes them to ignore the reality of heaven or even conclude that it does not exist. Jesus knew that the magnitude and grandeur of eternal life are really too much for us to grasp. He kept it simple and described it in terms of relationship. The disciples treasured their relationship with Jesus, and he assured them, "Where I am you also may be." Ultimately, that was enough for them to know. They would be with him. Strengthen your relationship with God as He is the way, the truth, and the life. Is the assurance that you will be with Him enough for you as well?

Witnesses for Jesus

This journey of faith is not always easy. Sometimes the greatest wounds are those we suffer when family members and friends wander away from God and leave us behind. The faith they had when they were younger is now strained, or they see the daily walking with Jesus to be too difficult. For them, Jesus becomes what Peter wrote about when he described Jesus as the stone that causes people to stumble and the rock that makes them fall. Our journey is hard enough, but watching a loved one stumble and fall is heart-breaking.

What are we to do in such a situation? Most importantly, we pray. We must realize that God is more powerful than us, and even if we can't make them see the truth, He can. Then we witness to the transformative power of Jesus by our own lives. We need to serve him in word and deed. We should let a joy of being a disciple enlighten our faces. Allow Jesus to work through us so that others may be drawn to him. Lastly, we must never lose hope. Many have walked long journeys alone only to find God far down the road. What will it take to bring someone to Christ? It might be an action, a word, or an emotion. We never know how certain people will be touched. That loved one is a gift from God in your life. Place them back in God's hands, and let Him pick them up if they have stumbled and fallen.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

"He wants to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart."

"I promise salvation to those who embrace it, and these souls will be loved by God, like flowers placed by me to adorn His throne."

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus is getting a place ready for you in heaven. One day you can spend time with Jesus there. You will never get sick. You will never be sad. You will never be left out. You will be loved because you are God's special child, and he wants to spend time with you every day.

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

Saint Corona, Who Is She? Feast Day: May 14

Little is known about the young woman who was killed presumably in the second century A.D. But now, a pandemic is shedding light on her: St Corona. Corona is believed to have been killed by Romans in Syria when she was 16 years old for proclaiming belief in Christianity. She witnessed the brutal punishment of Victor, a Roman Christian soldier and decided she needed to comfort the dying man. She hurried to him, knelt beside him, and began to pray for him. According to tradition, she had a vision of two crowns floating toward them from heaven, one for Victor and the other for her. When she announced her vision and declared Victor blessed, she was also condemned. "Corona" is Latin for "crown." The coronavirus is so-called because, under a microscope, it looks like a globe with little globules, resembling a crown. She herself died in a gruesome manner. Bound to two palm trees that were tied to the ground; when the trees were untied, they sprang apart, ripping her body in half. She is also considered the patron saint of lumberjacks.

She began to be honored starting in the sixth century in northern and central Italy. She is revered in Germany's southern state of Bavaria and in Austria. Corona's relics, brought to Aachen by King Otto III in 997, were kept in a tomb underneath a slab in the cathedral. In 1911-12 they were placed in a shrine. Aachen Cathedral, built by Emperor Charlemagne in the ninth century, is one of Europe's oldest. Charlemagne was buried there in 814 and it was used for the coronation of German kings and queens. St. Corona was not technically named the patron of pandemics. According to Catholic.org, she is sometimes "invoked in connection with superstitions involving money, such as gambling or treasure hunting." Gregory the Great, Roch, and Sebastian are all listed in Catholic.org's index as patron saints of plagues, Robert Bellarmine is the patron saint of contagious disease and Godeberta is the patron saint of epidemics. The faithful look at her name, and the location of her buried remains in northern Italy; the center of the Italian pandemic. For believers, that is more than coincidence. and they see something deeper than simple chance. That said, just because Corona hasn't historically been considered a patron saint of disease doesn't mean that she can't be now. Unlike the process of becoming a saint, there's no official protocol for being named a patron saint of any given subject. "Patron saints are often chosen today because an interest, talent, or event in their lives overlaps with the special area." Now St. Corona's name and protection is recognized by many Catholic faithful around the world. Michael Naughton, of the University of St. Thomas, said that, while Corona's experience had little to do with pandemics, still she was the ultimate example of how we should act when caught in one. "Do we go out and buy as much toilet paper as we can," he asked the Star Tribune, "or do we show love for one another as she had offered consolation to a suffering man? If St. Corona can help us do that, let's use it." As Harry Brent of the Irish Post has said, "We've all heard of fighting fire with fire. I guess it's now time to fight corona with Corona" St. Corona Pray for Us
