Welcome to

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

We are a community where we welcome all as members of the Body of Christ.

We are welcoming, faithful, passionate, joyful, authentic, sacramental, loving and charitable.

Today's Readings

Acts 10:34a, 37-43 / Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23 [24] / Col 3:1-4 or 1 Cor 5:6b-8 / Jn 20:1-9 or Mt 28:1-10

Then the angel said to the women in reply, "Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him.' Behold, I have told you."

(Mt 28:5-7)

Gospel Meditation

When we awoke this morning, we found ourselves blessed with another day. It is Easter Sunday.

As that thought crossed our minds, did we find ourselves saying "so what" or "alleluia"?

For many, today is truly a day of alleluia. For others, it is just another day of "so what." Faith makes a huge difference. It not only makes a difference in how we understand today and the significance of what we celebrate, it also makes a huge difference in terms of how we understand ourselves.

Succeed, live well, be productive, find your niche, follow your dreams, make money, protect your social status, be politically correct, and keep your preferences to yourself are pretty good examples of the messages our secular life wants us to hear. In and of themselves, they don't sound all that harmful. But when really examined, they are. The life of resurrection embodied in the Gospel tells us a much different story.

Life keeps us busy. We are always connected, distracted, occupied, and working. For many of us, an agenda awaits us before we even start our day, and unfinished stuff is brought with us when we retire at night. Make the best of life and "find your own road to happiness are messages we all too easily believe. The "so what" response to the new life of resurrection is often the result of believing that life is only what I make it. What God has to say isn't important to me securing my next raise.

Sadly, we live as if the grave is the end. While we may give the wonder of heaven a blink now and then, its glory really doesn't impress us or matter all that much. It's all about the here and now and what I need to do today to get where I want to be tomorrow. We tend to put off considering the one significant "tomorrow" that will come the millisecond after we take our last breath.

When that happens, will we want to be thinking "so what?" or "alleluia"?

There is only one Jesus, one mission, and one resurrection. There is also only one of us. Have you ever pondered what one solitary, humble human life can do? Faith, not our world, tells us how special we are. We are not robots. We are not replaceable. We have one shot. There are no do-overs. Love is at our core and unites us together as one with the God of love who so desperately wants us to be with Him forever. This may not match our secular agenda, but it ought to make our true inner agenda leap for joy. There doesn't need to be an end. I can live forever. Alleluia!

Scripture Reflections

First Reading

Peter's speech about the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus offers us a glimpse into the Church's earliest kerygma about Jesus. How is Peter's speech persuasive to you?

Second Reading

Using the metaphors of yeast and unleavened bread, Paul viewed the death and resurrection of Jesus as bringing a new life of "sincerity and truth" to the community of believers. How does the celebration of Easter unite your faith community?

Gospel Reading

Mary Magdalene is the first to realize that Jesus had risen from dead, and twice is told, "Do not be afraid." What fears are alleviated in you knowing that Jesus rose from the dead?

HE IS RISEN!

A Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

He is Risen! Alleluia!

Our Lenten journey always ends with a positive note every time we hear the message of Easter, which proclaims: "Jesus is Risen! Alleluia!" This message echoes renewal to humanity's fallen state. Through the Blood of the Lamb, the human nature, which was once broken because of sin, has been restored.

Jesus' suffering, death, and resurrection makes us whole again. He offered himself as an expiation for the sins of His people. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son." Jesus emptied Himself, died on the cross, was buried, and rose triumphantly from the dead. His empty tomb brings us the hope of eternal life. He said, "Whoever eats my Flesh and drinks my Blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day".

May our Easter celebration be filled with hope and joy. Do not let this coronavirus pandemic dim the brightness of the light, which the resurrection of Jesus joyfully brings us. May the empty tomb inspires us to spread the Good News of Jesus into the world. Share the message of Easter that Jesus lives forever in any way you can. "Preach the good news, if necessary use words" (St. Francis of Assisi).

On behalf of Fr. Cleetus, Fr. Haran, Deacons Bill and Jim, Parish Staff, have a Blessed Easter.

Our Faith

"The current circumstances have shaken us from our usual rhythms. We are unable to gather near to the Eucharistic table of the Lord. Still, through the grace of our baptism we can draw near to Jesus and through him enter into the mystical union of the one Body of Christ. "

Spiritual Communion Prayer

As Catholics, we share a strong desire to share in the Body and Blood of Christ with our brothers and sisters at the table of our Lord. It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion which is a source of grace.

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

*I embrace you as if you were already there
and unite myself wholly to you.*

*Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.*

"The saving mystery of the Death and Resurrection of our Lord Jesus is our Springtime. His joy and hope are the Paschal Fire that dispels the darkness of sin and the threatening gloom of this pandemic. "

~Bishop Jaime Soto

Act of Perfect Contrition

Approaching the Sacrament of Penance, through the ordinary way (before a priest) has become a challenge because of the pandemic. The Apostolic Penitentiary of the Holy See reminds us of the salutary option of making an act of perfect contrition. A perfect contrition comes from the very love of God who is beloved above all things and whose mercy is inexhaustible. The penitent is required to express a sincere and genuine request to receive forgiveness from God and must make a firm resolve to approach the sacrament in the ordinary way as soon as possible. Here are simple steps in making an act of perfect contrition:

- Find a good and private spot to pray. Reaffirm one's belief in the love and mercy of God. God's love for us is unconditional. Renew one's conviction of the truth of God's enduring love. Employ a meditation on God's Word (e.g. Parable of the Prodigal Son, Sermon on the Mount, other suitable text).
- Make a good examination of conscience and articulate in prayer the request to receive forgiveness. At the end of the examination, pray the Act of Contrition or some similar prayer.
- Finally, make a firm resolve to approach the Sacrament of Penance as soon as possible.
- When possible, make satisfaction for sins against one's neighbor. (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1459)

Covid-19: A Prayer of Solidarity

For all who have contracted coronavirus,
We pray for care and healing.

For those who are particularly vulnerable,
We pray for safety and protection.

For all who experience fear or anxiety,
We pray for peace of mind and spirit.

For affected families who are facing difficult decisions between food on the table or public safety,
We pray for policies that recognize their plight.

For those who do not have adequate health insurance,
We pray that no family will face financial burdens alone.

For those who are afraid to access care due
to immigration status,
We pray for recognition of the God-given dignity of all.

For our brothers and sisters around the world,
We pray for shared solidarity.

For public officials and decision makers,
We pray for wisdom and guidance.

Father, during this time may your Church
be a sign of hope, comfort and love to all.

Grant peace.
Grant comfort.
Grant healing.
Be with us, Lord.
Amen.

Inspiration of the Week

Our world wants us to believe that life is only what we make of it. Today, we realize how untrue that is. Life is ultimately about what God makes of it, and the resurrection of Jesus reveals this. Alleluia, Christ is risen! Who do you understand yourself to be? What we did yesterday, are doing today, and may do tomorrow pretty much determine how we perceive ourselves. We even perceive Jesus this way in limiting our vision of him to his earthly accomplishments. But, we know through today’s triumphant celebration that Christ is much more than his earthly legacy. The transfigured and resurrected Christ is the beginning, the end, and the fulfillment of all things and every person. All that Jesus did stands in second place to who we now know him to be. Do we realize that this will be our journey too? Christ is risen. Alleluia, alleluia!

Come to Christ

Life is perhaps God’s greatest gift to each of us. Without life, we would be unable to experience all the wonder of this world, the love of family and friends, and the joy that comes from using our talents and skills. Life itself is more profound a gift than we can even truly contemplate.

On Easter, we celebrate life. For on this day, Jesus Christ conquered death and gave to us the chance for a life eternal. The wonder, love, and joy of this world does not have to end. Through a life in Jesus Christ, these emotions are heightened, and we find even greater fulfillment in this world.

Maybe this Easter you are finding yourself open to taking a next step in your relationship with Jesus. This could be the moment you decide to follow Him more closely and take seriously all that he has given you. If so, welcome to the journey, where there are many other disciples on that same path who can help show you the way and share their stories. If not, hopefully it doesn’t take a whole year for this possibility to be considered again. Jesus is alive and waiting to get closer to you. May this Easter season find you and Our Lord getting to know one another in a whole new way. Happy Easter!

Loaves and Fishes

"Where Charity And Love are, God is there"

The Divine Mercy Ministry is continuing to collect food for the homeless at Friendship Park. With the church remaining open for private prayer during the week 8am-4:30pm and 7am-6pm on the weekend, it will be possible for you to leave your donations on the designated cart in the vestibule. Whatever you can bring to share will be very much appreciated. Items most requested are cup-of-soups, peanut butter and cheese crackers, juice boxes and oatmeal packets, Nutra and breakfast bars, raisins and fruit cups. All will be dropped off April 22. Thank you for your participation and our continued prayers for the homeless, our parish and community.

Make Your Donations Online

Please remember although the services are put on hold for the time being, parish operations continue; bills are to be paid, staff need to be given their salaries, facilities' maintenance are needed. Your weekly envelopes can be mailed to the parish office or use the online giving.

With online giving you can give a single donation or recurring donations to our church, specific parish ministries, or Diocesan appeals, etc.

Please sign up on our website. Click on the "Give" button located at the top of our home page. This will take you to the "Time, Talent, & Treasure" page. Once there go to the heart and click on "Give Online" and fill out the form and submit.

Do You Have Any Easter/Spring Themed Unused Greeting Cards Available?

The Prison Ministry is currently looking for Easter/Spring/Notes of Encouragement themed cards or blank cards that the prisoners at CSP-SAC can send to a family member and/or loved one. The inmates expressed that this will be especially valuable and would appreciate having a card to send out since no visiting, no volunteers and very little movement of any kind is being allowed. A box will be placed in the vestibule to collect these cards. Even if cards are collected later, we'll gladly take them and pass them out or keep them for next year.

Win a Trip to Hawaii and Support St. Vincent de Paul

The St. Vincent de Paul Benefit Dinner for the Poor has been cancelled. However, our raffle ticket sales will help raise funds and we will continue to sell raffle tickets for a trip to Hawaii. Tickets are $10 each and will be sold until May 23rd. We will postpone sales in the vestibule for now and hope to resume again in April or May. Ticket sales will benefit those in need. Thank you for your support.

KID'S CORNER

Sharing the Gospel

It was very early in the morning on Sunday. The tomb stone was rolled away. Jesus was gone. All that was left inside were the strips of linen cloth. When John and Peter saw it, they were amazed. They did not understand all the promises the prophets wrote about Jesus yet. However, they knew he was alive. He had risen from the dead!

Puzzle

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

The Scriptures said Jesus would rise to life.

Prayer

Jesus, you died and rose from the dead so I can share your life on earth and in heaven. Thank you.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

MINISTRIES

"Here am I, Lord;
I come to do your will."

AN EASTER PROCLAMATION

The hosts of heaven exult and sing aloud in mighty triumph!
 Let the earth be glad as glory alights and night reigns no more.
 Let the Church rejoice at the victory of her Lord and Master,
 Who paid the debt of Adam,
 Who frees those doomed to die,
 Who heals the broken-hearted and bind up their wounds,
 Who forgives the sinner and raises up the lowly,
 Who destroys death forever,
 Whose Kingdom shall have no end.
 God our Father, eternal is your love for us!
 Christ the Son, in victory you reign!
 Holy Spirit, set the Easter fire ablaze in our hearts.
 Together you live and reign and ransom your people,
 one God forever and ever.

Amen.
